UTILITY BILL IS APPROVED BY STEPHENS

Measure Permitting of Joint Action by District Including Towns Outside County Gets Signature of Governor

Provision Made That All Municipalities Must Be Canvassed; Negative Vote to Eliminate Individual Towns

Governor William D. Stephens today signed the public utility district bill as drawn by a conference of the city attorneys of the East Bay.

With the signing of the measure, and after the lapse of the short time before it becomes a law, the cities of the East Bay, including Richmond or any other point outside of Alameda county, will be able to take joint action toward solving their water problem and will be free to do so without incurring the added expense of a new set of officers.

The bill, which was introduced in the legislature by Assemblyman Homer R. Spence of Alameda, amends the old public utilities district act by making the officials serve without salary, by allowing the inclusion of all the towns of a county, and makes a number of changes for a more simple and effective group action toward the ownership of management of a utility.

NO OBSTACLE IN WAY OF JOINT ACTION.

There is now no obstacle in the way of the cities acting together for a water supply regardless of what action is taken on cities and county consolidation.

City attorneys of the East Bay cities received the word of the signing of the measure with pleasure for they had put in weeks of effort on it and believe that in it is the solution of community utility problems.

"I am glad that the governor signed the bill although we never asked him to do so," said his wife, Mrs. City Attorney W. J. Locke of Alameda said today. "I believe and hope that it is the intent of the cities to go ahead as soon as they can and form a district under the new law. The bill is a great improvement over the old one."

"One of the main differences is that it does not allow the city manager to instead of that of commissioners. Under it the directors act in advisory capacity and do not receive salaries, the carrying out of the details are left to the administrative head. The bill will become a law in August and I look forward to forming the district to start work at once."

"This is really a new public utility district law," said Frank Gruber, city attorney of Berkeley, "and not mere amendments to the old one, as many believe. The old law provided for the voting for the formation of the district, then the voting for officers, and third election for members of board, while the last asked salaries for the board of directors."

"The big thing done in the new law is to combine the election on the formation of the district with that for the election of officers, and removing the salaries. The law creates out of the separate cities a unit to deal with stated public utilities."

EACH MUNICIPALITY MUST BE CANVASSED.

One of the amendments to the law provides that each municipality must be canvassed separately when the matter of forming the district comes to a vote and if a majority of any city is not in favor then that city is left out. No two cities may form a district as a nucleus for other cities to join in the future unless these two cities constitute two-thirds of the total registration of the proposed district.

Assemblyman Spence had the bill in charge before the legislature and was responsible for the calling of conferences which resulted in the bill. In these conferences the following city officials took part: Mayor John L. Davis of Oakland, Mayor Louis Bartlett of Berkeley, Councilman Latham of Alameda, C. E. Hewes, city manager of Alameda; W. J. Locke, city attorney of Alameda; Mayor Christie of Emeryville; Dr. W. H. Corbin, city attorney of Berkeley; Leon Gray, assistant city attorney of Oakland; Murton Campbell, Oakland. The delegation appeared before the legislature in the interest of the measure.

The bill, which is sixteen pages long, defines in detail the powers and machinery of the public utility district.

U. S.-Japanese Sailors Battle In Chinese Port

Casualties Reported in Clash Between Seamen of Two Nations At Shanghai.

Employees of S. P. Refuse Wage Cut

SAN FRANCISCO, May 23.—A report from Shanghai, lacking in details today indicated that there had been some casualties as a result of a fight yesterday in Shanghai between American and Japanese sailors.

The first report received here stated the battle occurred on Woo Sung street in front of a movie house. The cause of the clash was not stated, but it is reported the sailors involved were from the Japanese warship Nakashio and from an unnamed American ship, both having been anchored in the harbor of Shanghai.

The Navy Department was credited with the report! statement regarding the report:

The one report receiving an official report on the incident is doubtless due to the fact that the investigation and negotiations for a settlement following the affair are unfinished."

Carrying a sealed letter of good will from Mayor John L. Davis to Mayor Hylan of New York, Jack T. Le Noir, his wife, Marie Le Noir, and Miss Dolly Caverly and Leonard Pace left the Oakland city hall today on a hike to New York, during which they expect to break the record held by a mixed quartet of walkers. All of the way across the continent the four will advertise Oakland as "The City With An Industrial Future." With the Twentieth-ninth balloon company as an instructor.

One Man Is Shot, Four Killed, 38 Are Hurt in Row Over Girl

Trouble Is the Sequel to Dice Game; Two Men, Woman Sought by Police.

One man was shot and seriously wounded and four others slightly injured in a fight early this morning at 927 Seventh street when three men tried to break into the room occupied by Joy Wilson, a waitress, who works in a tawdry parlor below the rooming house. John Dolen, 140, Seventh street, was shot through the right eye, with Fred Pennington, Victor Lester, J. W. Robinson, proprietor of the rooming house, and Charles Belvedere, 732 Myrtle street, were slightly injured in the brawl and later arrested by the police.

The fight followed a dice game in the room of the waitress, according to the story of the police, which men were ejected by Robinson and Dolen. The men left and fifteen minutes later returned and tried to break down the door of the girl's room. Miss Wilson told them no one was with her and the men searched for Robinson's room, which they found at the end of the hall with the door open. The man, who was identified as "Red," is said to have fired three shots through the open door.

Dolen, incensed at their actions, stepped to his door and ordered them to cease their disturbance. With his remarks on one of the strangers fired a shot at him, the bullet striking him in the right eye. When they saw him sink to the floor, they fled.

A fire call was turned in at Central Police Station and Police Inspector William Haldeman and Eddie O'Donnell responded, with six patrolmen. They arrested Pennington, Lester, Belvedere as participants and witnesses to the shooting. The Wilson girl escaped from her room by climbing over the railing of the adjoining building. The police are searching for the two strangers, "Shorty" and "Red," who are declared to have fled the shots.

NAVAL BASE IS DELAYED BY SENATE

MEN SPIRITED AWAY AS MOB BREAKS DOOR

Appropriation for $1,500,000 to Begin Work Voted Down by Democrats in League With Followers of Borah

Ballot Is 40 to 30 Against the Amendment to Budget to Provide Necessary Funds; Southerners Are Opponents

WASHINGTON, May 23.—The Senate today delayed the beginning of work on a Pacific coast naval base at Alameda, Calif., by striking out of the navy bill an appropriation of $1,500,000 for that purpose. The vote was 40 to 30.

Republicans joined with Democrats in defeating the Alameda proposal, which was brought in by the Senate naval committee as an amendment to the bill. The Democrats opposed it largely because the committee desired to hold up until 1924 all work on a drydock at Charleston, S. C. The Republicans who proposed it were largely from inland states.

BORAH'S OPPOSITION HOLDS UP WORK

They took the view advanced by Senator Borah and others that the Alameda proposal was a screen for a plan to abandon the Mare Island, Calif., navy yard and build a new one eventually in Alameda.

This marks the second substantial reduction in the bill, which the independent Republicans headed by Borah had succeeded in making.

The other was $1,000,000 in the item for transportation and recruiting.

INLAND SENATORS VOTE AGAINST AMENDMENT

The Republicans voting against the Alameda item were: Borah, Carter, Clegg, Gorring, Harrel, Jones, Washington, Kirkland, Smith, LaFollette, Lenroot, McCormick, McKinley, McNary, Nelson, Norris, Stanfield, Townsend and Weller.

Four Democrats—Fletcher, Pitt, man Smith, South Carolina, and Swanson—supported the Alameda appropriation.

The Republicans voting against the bill were: Johnson, Kuhn, and the three Southerners who were sent to Santa Rosa to Sheriff John M. Boyes for assistance.

The cooler citizens applied themselves to the task of holding the mob at bay until the arrival of the sheriff and his posse.

Twice the mob began a rush for the jail doors with heavy logs and stones and once they were persuaded to wait until the men had been fully dressed.

Then the mob, shouting at the stark whitewashed walls, there fell a silence profound and deep.

Mrs. Harding could be seen weeping softly as she looked upon the flag-draped coffins of those who had given their lives for their country.

CITIZENS STAYED OFF MOB OF LYNNCHERS

Citizens who had rushed the three men to the jail and placed them in a basement cell, held the mob at bay by arguing with them to disperse and to give the news to Santa Rosa to Sheriff John M. Boyes for assistance.

23 Europeans Are Slain When Egyptians Riot

130 Reported Wounded When Alexandria Natives Attack Foreigners.

ALEXANDRIA, Egypt, May 23.—(By the Associated Press).—Twenty-three Europeans were killed and 130 others wounded in rioting here Sunday night and this morning it was announced today. The police casualties were not given out.

LONDON, May 23.—(By the Associated Press).—Many persons reported to have been killed in an outbreak in Alexandria, Egypt, where natives attacked Europeans, says Reuter's despatch from that city. British troops have arrived and taken charge of the town.

It is reported that the outbreak arose from the killing of a native by a Greek, which led to attacks by the natives and students on Greeks and other Europeans. Ambulances were busy all night taking the wounded to hospitals. Many fires were started and in one district it was reported that Europeans were burned alive.

After a fast trip to Santa Rosa the three men were placed in the very same cells occupied by the three gunmen, Valente and George Boyd, the three gangsters who were lynched by a mob of Santa Rosans last November.

INJURED OFFICER AT POINT OF DEATH.

Thoroughly frightened, the three shipyard workers were hardly able to talk. They said they did not know why they had beaten up Deputy Ryan.

The trouble occurred when Deputy Sheriff Ryan answered a call from a Sonoma restaurant, that three men were causing disturbance there.

When he asked the men to keep quiet, without warning they leaped from their seats, striking him on the head with their fists.

He hit him on the head with his own gun, and broke both of his arms, his right leg and his nose by kicking him with their heavy shoes. His skull is probably fractured and he is suffering from internal injuries.

He was taken to Santa Rosa today and placed in the Santa Rosa jail, where he remained until his release.

Carrying a revolver, he was released on bail.

He is reported to be the man who shot the officer in the back.

According to Sheriff Boyes, the three men, all of whom are 21 years of age, will be charged, following an investigation, with assault, battery, resisting an officer and malicious mischief.

Hynes, Hall and Cliff came to the scene of the shooting, and the three men were arrested.

EFFICIENCY IS NATION'S SLOGAN, SAYS PRESIDENT

methods which are applied in private business to secure these ends.

"The government should be broad, conscientious and intelligent enough to subject itself to these rules, despite that its quality of sovereignty would place it beyond them. If it chose to assume that position, every principle and practice which promotes efficiency in private business should be adopted and applied in government affairs. I will trust the public official who decides his public problem as though it were his very own."

"To bring economy and efficiency into government is a task second in importance to the security of the nation.

"For example, the government has any conception of the growth of government business in the last decades before the world war; still few at all realize the pace to which that growth has been speeded up since the war started. The multiplication of government business divisions, functions, has resulted in a sort of geometrical increase in the tasks which confront the heads of legislative departments when they face reconstruction problems.

"For instance, the task is not so hopeless as it might appear because the present organization is not so bad that the insistent application of a few established principles of sound business organization in immediate economic means will provide a margin of efficiency to meet the new demands.

"The task is to put the nation in order to economy and efficiency, and you may be assured that every energy is being directed to redeem that pledge to the last degree and with all promptness."

"The task will require some time and ultimate results must await it. More, it will demand a resolute courage to effect the abolition of the useless and the co-ordination of the useful."

"I need not emphasize to you gentlemen the anomalous situation in which the government is spending more than it receives.

In having a great number of spending committees apportioning money to various purposes, without any study of the relationship of these aggregated spendings to the revenue in sight.

The establishment of the budget system is the foundation on which the reorganization must be based. It is hardly conceivable, indeed, that a proper budget system could be established and carried on for any considerable time, without forcing attention to the evils and effecting the reform of the present system.

But the budget program will not do everything. It must not be accounted a fiscal and efficiency panacea, for it will not be there must still be much and continuing effort to keep expenses down, and a full value for every dollar of the taxpayer's money the government spends."

British Troops Ordered To Silesia; Poles Are Overwhelmed by Germans

LONDON, May 23.—(By the Associated Press)—The British government has decided to send troops to Silesia as an early date, it was announced today.

PARIS, May 23.—(By Associated Press)—The allied high commission in Upper Silesia has sent delegations to intervene with both the Germans and the Poles in an endeavor to obtain the cessation of all military operations in that territory, according to French official despatches to-day.

Each of the delegations is composed of representatives of France, Great Britain and Italy.

POLES OVERWHELMED.

OPPEIN, Upper Silesia, May 23.—German volunteers have routed Polish insurgents in which the Poles, insurgents were defeated, said despatches from Reichenau today. The Anglo-German forces combined in a storm attack, capturing a strategically important height from the Poles. Three field guns were taken by the British and German troops.

"The Poles attempt a counter attack," said the German, "but the Germans charged in great numbers and overcame the Poles."

At Gogolin, which the Germans took last week after a sharp fight, a Polish attack was repulsed.

GERMANS TERRIFIED.

LONDON, May 23.—Four battalions of British soldiers will leave immediately for Upper Silesia, it was announced officially by the war office.

The men will be drawn from the troops along the Rhine. The battalions will augment the allied forces sent to the order of battle under the plebiscite has been determined.

Unofficial reports here today said that fighting between Poles and Germans is continuing in Upper Silesia.

In the neighborhood of Kreuzberg, Rosenberg and Kappitz, the fighting was said to be of guerrilla character.

Well-armed police forces were dispersed by two columns of Germans armed with revolvers, who moved boldly into Grossdinsler forest, where large Polish forces awaited them in roughly made barricades.

Poles, after a sharp conflict at Lovietzko, were overwhelmed by the Germans. They set fire to numerous buildings, terrorized the German inhabitants and withdrew. The most extensive damage there was the burning of Grossteiner Castle, a notable landmark.

Losses on both sides were said to be mounting.

By WEBB MILLER, United Press Staff Correspondent.

PARIS, May 23.—France will hold German responsible for the fighting in Upper Silesia, it was stated officially here today.

If the allies do not act to halt hostilities between the Poles and Germans, the situation will be serious, it was stated.

Disregarding French protests, German authorities in Upper Silesia are pouring into Upper Silesia. The sign office declared today, in some places, free railway transportation is offered to attract prospective fighters, it was said.

Mothers to Open Meet By Tribute to Fathers

An interesting program has been arranged for "Father's Night," the opening session of the twenty-second annual convention of California Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teacher Associations, which will be held tomorrow night in the Auditorium theater. The invocation will be given by Rev. G. H. Wright.

Following by an adult to the flag, followed by Mrs. W. C. Comstock, state chairman of patriotism. Addressess of welcome will be delivered by Mayor John L. Davie, Mrs. P. J. Kramer, president of the Oakland Federation of Mothers' Clubs; Fred Hunter, superintendent of Oakland schools, and Mrs. Harry J. Ewing, president California Congress of Mother-Parent-Teacher Associations, will respond. There will be greetings from Governor William D. Stephens, W. C. Wood, superintendent of public instruction; Mrs. David O. Mears, first vice-president of National Congress of Mothers, and Charles M. Osenbaugh, president of the Chico Normal School.

Tomorrow morning a preliminary executive meeting will be held up to last year's affairs, after which the Second district, Mrs. H. G. Tardy, president, will entertain the state board at luncheon at the Hotel Oakland, which is official headquarters.

2000 EXPECTED. The real business of the convention will start Wednesday morning, Friedman, president, and on noon 2000 mothers will listen to addresses or themselves discuss the problems they consider of vital importance to child welfare.

Wednesday morning the state officers will present their reports of the year's work and at noon there will be a reciprocity luncheon for outgoing and incoming presidents, the bus associations acting as hosts.

The afternoon session will be devoted to an address on "The Parent

Trucks Are Damaging Streets, Says Edwards

Commissioner Edwards of the street department today requested the City Attorney for habeas in instituting some ordinance, or some construction of present ordinances, to check weight of loads on trucks on the city streets.

"This is an important matter to the taxpayers," says Edwards, "as the department has spent during the year probably $2,000 to rebuild streets torn up by heavily laden auto trucks. It is time something be done to prevent it."

Mrs. Leafe C. Courtney of 626 Sixty-sixth street charges that her husband was abusive, sarcastic, domineering and brutal, while Charles E. Courtney says that his wife got drunk, lied him, and called him names. In testimony given before Superior Judge A. J. St. Sure in a divorce action today.

Mrs. Courtney, who is represented by Senator Frank Carr, charged that on August 17 her husband hit her, breaking her nose with his fist, that he squandered money on other women and she gave $5 a month alimony, attorney's fees and costs.

COUNTY ORDERS HOSPITAL ANNEX COSTING $100,000

E. T. Leiter & Sons Successful Bidders; A Street Repairs Planned.

The Board of Supervisors today awarded a contract amounting to nearly $100,000 for the construction of a service building at the Sun Leandro County Hospital.

E. T. Leiter & Sons were the successful bidders, with five other contractors competing. The Leiter bid was $97,671. Each bidder was asked to submit an alternate bid for the work with certain minor changes in the specifications as to material and other details.

The Leiter additional bid was $80. This was accepted and added to the original bid, making the contract call for $98,567.

The other bids were P. W. Littlefield, $118,639; W. G. Thormahlen, $120,961; M. C. Vaughn, $14,000; W. C. Duncan, $112,220; and F. E. Hartman, $102,000.

Construction will begin in October, and required will be $40,000. The contract is to be completed within 175 days. It provides for covered walks in connection with the building, which is to be used to house internees, nurses and other employees, besides containing the dining room, kitchen and other service departments.

The board adopted a resolution ordering repairs made to the A street bridge of Hayward, across San Leandro Creek, in accordance with a report of County Surveyor P. A. Haviland, that the bridge is in a dangerous condition.

Haviland, to prepare plans and estimates for the work.

A report was received from Dr. Kirby Smith, Oakland health officer, that premises owned by the county at 418 Webster street are occupied by persons living under inhumane conditions and should be condemned for living purposes.

Frederick Petersen, superintendent of buildings, was directed to investigate.

The movement is regarded by the Times' correspondent as far more serious than a mere reaction of the German population against the interventionists and anti-interventionists.

The allied commission was unable to stop the outbreak of fighting and is now just as powerless to intervene.

Apparently the Germans have regular army reserves at their disposal, to the dispatch, have been steadily consolidating their position and extending the control over the individual districts of Silesia.

They are reported to have succeeded in securing work again in mines, factories and factories, and now are squeezing the allied authorities out of the towns they still occupy in order to complete their hold on the railway between Kattowitz and Gliwitz.

It is believed that the Germans, being employed to compel the surrender of these two important towns, no foul play is being allowed to enter them, but as this has not proved effective, the water and electricity supplies of Kattowitz were cut off yesterday.

BANDIT FAILS IN ATTEMPT TO ROB S. F. MAN

SAN FRANCISCO, May 23.—A would-be robber tackled the wrong man when he attempted to assault Alex Coach of 509 Second avenue as he was riding in a jitney this morning. Coach hired the machine at 2 o'clock this morning. Coach hired the machine at Fourteenth and Valencia and asked to be driven home. He sat with the driver. On the rear seat was another passenger, apparently asleep. At 45th and Parker avenue the man suddenly sprang upon Coach and struck him on the head. The latter struggled with his assailant, who was attempting to take his money, and in his fight the robber was thrown out of the machine. The driver made no attempt to stop and assist Coach or to take part in the robbery, and the police are unable to determine whether he was a party to it. Coach jumped from the car and sought aid from the Richmond station, but the man had disappeared.

WOMAN DIES IN HOSPITAL.

Miss Lindstrom died in a hospital when she was struck by an automobile Friday night. Details of the accident were suppressed until Saturday night. She was struck by a machine driven by R. J. Chesney, a salesman for the Realty Syndicate Company, 1367 East Sixty-third street, while waiting for a street car at Twenty-second street and Telegraph avenue. Police say the accident was apparently unavoidable and no charge has been placed against Chesney. The body is at the city morgue. Miss Chesney's relatives are in Iowa.

As a result of injuries sustained when he was run down by an automobile driven by Mrs. Harry Voorhees of Shasta Avenue, Berkeley, Friday afternoon, Marcel Martinez of Alameda died in a hospital here early yesterday. A coroner's inquest will be held Wednesday and pending the verdict of the jury, no action will be taken by the police. Martinez, an employee of the Oakland traction company, was working on the tracks when struck by Mrs. Voorhees' automobile.

AUTO STOPS ON MOTORROAD TRACKS.

Grube died in a San Jose cemetery early yesterday following injuries received in an accident Saturday morning. His father who was riding with him at the time of the accident was also injured. According to witnesses young Grube was on the running board of the machine which was being driven by his father and the engine stalled and the car stopped on the track. The result of an auto accident at San Jose. The brakes failed to check the speed of the car and it crashed into the automobile, demolishing it and crushing young Grube. His father's injuries are not serious.

Taken, a six-year-old Japanese boy died early today at the Emeryville hospital of injuries received when an automobile carrying 15 Japanese returned from a trip to San Leandro, overturned last night at Derby street and Foothill boulevard. Izozaka who was also a passenger sustained injuries which are expected to prove fatal. First aid was rendered by Captain Robert Ferguson of the Letterman general hospital, San Francisco, who was accompanied by Dr. Sato, who passed immediately following the accident.

Others less seriously injured in the same accident were:

Others less seriously injured are A. M. Takahashi, 2313 Bank street, Alameda; M. T. Takagi, 2313 Bank street, Alameda; G. Oshita and A. Oshita, his seven-year-old son, 2121 Channing way, Berkeley, and Al. Yaski, 2313 Bank street, Alameda. The victims were taken to the San Leandro infirmary and the Oakland Emergency Hospital. The truck was driven by Y. Takeuchi, 320 Webster street, who was thrown clear, without injury.

Corse is at the Harbor Emergency hospital, San Francisco, where he is not expected to recover as a result of the injuries received when he was jammed between two automobile trucks on a Southern Pacific truck operating on the Creek route. The boat had reached the Ferry building slip in San Francisco from Oakland, when Corse started to crank his truck. He had evidently forgotten to throw his gears into neutral and the heavy machine plowed forward and forced him against another truck.

TOURING CAR IS OVERTURNED.

Mrs. Young was injured when a touring car in which she and a party of friends were riding overturned on the State Highway opposite Clark drive, near San Mateo, following a blowout of a rear tire. The car was being driven by W. H. Sayers, 66 Seventh street, San Francisco. With Mrs. Young was her daughter, Marjorie, also a music teacher. She was not hurt.

Miss Russell and McGregor escaped with slight cuts and bruises when their automobile struck an embankment on the side of the San Bruno road, two miles south of the San Francisco county line and turned over. Passing autoists found them and took them to a hospital.

Ran down by an automobile at Twelfth and Clay streets yesterday, and taken to the emergency hospital by the driver of the machine which struck him. He was not seriously injured.

Bauchou was cut about the face and hands by flying glass when the machine in which he was riding struck a telephone pole on Steiner street, between California and Pine, San Francisco, early yesterday morning. Bauchou was riding with C. P. Roberts, 1370 Twenty-fourth avenue, San Francisco, who piloted the machine into the pole to escape a collision with another machine.

NURSE'S AUTO IS STRUCK BY CAR.

Mrs. Arena, a nurse at the Providence hospital, escaped serious injury when her automobile was struck by a street car at East Fourteenth street and Thirteenth avenue. The machine was wrecked and the woman thrown to the pavement. The accident was said to be unavoidable.

Mrs. Gene, Mrs. Clark, Miss McCreigh and Miss Lavelle, all of San Francisco, were hurt in another crash with a street car. The accident occurred at Ashby avenue and Fulton street, Berkeley, following an attempt to turn the corner. The machine rammed the street car and was badly wrecked. It was driven by Anderson, one of the injured were treated at the hospital emergency room. Nearly all windows of the street car were broken. Motorman T. K. McGuire and Conductor William Ellis declared that they did not see the machine in time to prevent an accident.

Twenty-five people had narrow escapes from death or serious injury in a series of accidents near San Jose yesterday, eleven sustaining minor injuries requiring medical treatment.

Matson was driving an automobile with his wife, two children and Mrs. John Martin of Mill Valley, all sustained cuts and bruises in a crash near Niles, with a machine driven by Albert Pitt, a rancher of Pleasanton.

Pitt, it is stated, swerved to the left to pass an automobile in front of him just as Matson started to pass the two cars locking wheels. Matson's machine turned over on its side, throwing out all the occupants. Fortunately neither car was traveling fast. Pitt was accompanied by his wife and four others, traffic officers stated. His car careened badly but stayed upright until brought to a stop.

TWO BOYS RIDING MOTORCYCLE.

Wells and Gardner, riding a motorcycle collided with an automobile driven by O. M. Melvinich at a point on the state highway near Morgan Hill late last evening, the two boys both sustaining severe lacerations and bruises. Melvinich's car left the highway after striking the motorcycle, going through a fence. He and three others escaped injury.

Both front wheels of Glichrist's automobile, which he was driving from Oakland to Salinas, were smashed, as well as a rear wheel on the machine of W. D. Dickson of San Jose, when Dickson stopped suddenly on the highway near Milpitas. Glichrist and a daughter, Violet, aged 10, were both cut about the face by glass from the broken windshield. Mrs. Glichrist, Mrs. Harvey Moody, Vivian Moody and a baby escaped with other than a severe slaking. In Dickson's machine were his wife, three children and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schaeffer of Milpitas. All escaped injury.

Mrs. Carrier and Mrs. E. B. received cuts and bruises which required treatment at Gilroy after their machine had been struck by an automobile driven by Angelo Romano, a rancher residing near that city, while en route from Pacific Grove. Both machines left the highway and were disabled, being partially wrecked. None of Romano's party was injured. The two women were thrown from their machine.

N. D. G. W. PLAN PARTY.

Along Parlor, 100, N. D. G. W. will have a whist party in Wigwam hall, Pacific building, tomorrow evening at 9 o'clock. Miss Alice Block is chairman of the committee which is making arrangements for the affair.

Mr. Young was injured when a touring car in which she and a party of friends were riding overturned on the State Highway opposite Clark drive, near San Mateo, following a blowout of a rear tire. The car was being driven by W. H. Sayers, 66 Seventh street, San Francisco. With Mrs. Young was her daughter, Marjorie, also a music teacher. She was not hurt.

Miss Russell and McGregor escaped with slight cuts and bruises when their automobile struck an embankment on the side of the San Bruno road, two miles south of the San Francisco county line and turned

COMET WILL NOT BE SEEN, THOUGH CLOSE TO EARTH

Gaseous Tail Expected to Flick Us, But It Won't Be Visible.

The Pons-Winnecke comet due to approach the earth in June, will not do anything more serious than flick the tip of its tail in the world's eye. This announcement, fraught with relief for thousands of persons who have been waiting for the heavenly visitor's arrival with considerable apprehension, is announced by W. W. Campbell director of Lick Observatory at Mount Hamilton, who declares the comet will not collide with the earth. There is not the remotest possibility of a collision as the minimum distance of approach between the two bodies with be 13,000,000 miles, on June 10.

The Pons-Winnecke comet was discovered in 1819, by Pons, the French astronomer. In 1858, Winnecke, another astronomer, discovered the same comet, establishing its identity with the one discovered by Pons. It takes about 58 years for the Pons-Winnecke comet to complete its orbit of the sun. At one point in its orbit it is 98,000,000 miles away from the sun; its nearest approach. Its maximum distance from the sun body is approximately 500,000,000 miles.

Professor Lawrence and Miss Levy of the University of California have computed the distance between the comet and the earth will be about 17,000,000 miles on June 1. By June 30 the comet will be about 20,000,000 miles away. During the last half of June the earth will pass within about 5,000,000 miles of where the comet passed ten days previous, and it is possible that a meteor shower may result. An interesting attribute of comets is the frequency with which they change their luminous clothes. A comet's tail is a continuous stream of gaseous matter and fine materials which is thrown off into space by some repelling force exercised by the sun, and always extends away from the sun.

The Pons-Winnecke comet will probably not be visible to the naked eye.

U. S. Provides But $400,000 For Forest Fire Prevention

But $400,000 federal appropriation for forest fire prevention to be used in cooperation with the states on the dollar-for-dollar basis is now being distributed among 28 states that have made appropriation for this work according to announcement from the national forest fire prevention committee, which is issuing information to the country in the interests of Fire Prevention week, proclaimed by President Harding for May 22 to 28.

Recent estimates by state foresters and officers of the United States forest service as to the annual cost of providing reasonable protection from fire to the West's remaining forests aggregate over $8,000,000. Only one-third of the amount is available and the $400,000 furnished by the federal government scarcely exceeds 5 per cent of it, the bulletin declares.

While fire is running over 10,000,000 acres of timber yearly and causing a loss estimated at $20,000,000, the state and federal governments are content to spend less than one-third of what is necessary to give even "reasonable protection" to the fast-disappearing timber supply, the nation's chief antecedent while it is noted more is "commercial protection" which will put the growing of timber by the individual or corporation on a business basis.

Individuals are urged to interest themselves in the work of the foresters and impart all necessary information to tourists who travel through California's forests and national playgrounds. Boy Scouts are assisting the state foresters in spreading propaganda for fire prevention.

Still Explodes, Sets Fire To Residence in Rockridge

One of the small tanks on a still exploded yesterday at 146 Rockridge boulevard in the exclusive residential district. The explosion set fire to one of the rooms on the second floor of the house.

When the fire department arrived on the scene they found the house empty and all the doors locked. They still in the burning room. It was a thirty-gallon still and one of the best that has ever been taken in a raid.

Fire Chief Elliott Whitehead notified Police Inspector William Kyle, who is head of the moral squad Kyle and his squad dismantled the still and took it to the City Hall.

According to the police department, the still was seized by George Lieutenant John Eldridge, who served in the air service during the war. Eldridge has a plane parked at the Durant field and has made a number of flights.

United States Commissioner Albert M. Hildreth said:

"Upon the information that Inspector Kyle has furnished me, I will issue a warrant against Eldridge sometime today."

The police tried to locate Eldridge yesterday but could not find any trace of him.

Berkeley Scio's to Have Theater Party

Berkeley Pyramids No. 13, Ancient Legion Order of Scio's will hold a benefit theater party at the Oakland Auditorium, June 6. The entire house has been purchased for the evening and the Pyramid is exerting themselves to fill the theater to capacity. The committee in charge of the party are Scio's Abel Templeton, Gray, Richards, Merrill, Street, Melville, Loudeak and Swartz. Tickets may be procured from these parties or other Scio's or at the Pyramids' rooms, 101 Grand Avenue, San Francisco, or Grand Avenue, Oakland, or at the Oakland Orpheum box office. All Scio's and friends are respectfully urged to help make this a big success. It is hoped to set aside a part of the proceeds for the purpose of helping to defray the expense of building a solarium, a needed facility at the Masonic Home at Decoto.

RELIEF BODY BUYS CALIFORNIA FOOD TO SEND EUROPE

Pledge of Herbert Hoover to Be Fulfilled by New Purchases Soon

SAN FRANCISCO, May 23.—A total of 4700 tons of beans and rice, netting the California growers more than $300,000, has been purchased to date by the European Relief Council from funds contributed in California in the recent campaign for the starving children of Europe.

The figures were obtained today from Ralph P. Merritt, who has just returned from Washington and New York, where, in conferences with Herbert Hoover, arrangements for the purchases were made. Clay Miller, Pacific Coast buying agent of the council, completed the transactions with the California bean and rice farmers.

PLEDGE REMEMBERED.

Arrangements are now in hand to buy an additional $60,000 worth of beans and rice. When the purchasers are completed within the next few weeks California will have received more than its proportionate share of supplies for food. This is in fulfillment of the pledge of Mr. Hoover, to buy food, as far as possible, in the state proportionate to the aid given.

Eighty per cent of the California rice was bought of the Pacific Rice Growers' Association, the remainder, of the millers. The growers had stated that if the council could buy broken rice, it would be extending the greatest possible aid to the California producers. According to all of the rice bought was "broken," cleaning up California's supply.

BEAN SHIPMENTS.
The California Bean Association was given first opportunity to sell its product. All of the beans bought in excess of its offerings were proportioned among California brokers. Seven hundred tons have been shipped. The San Joaquin West Coast ship, now in port, is laden with 233 tons of beans and rice and will sail at the end of the month for European ports. From these ports the beans and rice will be freighted to American can warehouses and feeding stations. The food will retain its identity as a California product, thus the state will have been made more definitely known to hundreds of thousands of consumers.

Botanists to Explore in Mendocino Hills

Members of the California Botanical Society are leaving today on an exploring trip to the Mendocino mountains. The trip will include a visit to the mountain gardens of the well-known naturalist Carl Purdy, near Ukiah. Mr. Purdy has spent years of his life collecting native plants and flowers of the state and adapting them to natural growth in his large land holdings.

The society is studying and classifying the flora of this state, much of which is not found in any other part of the world. The society is endeavoring to preserve for the state many plants which otherwise would become extinct. California ranks with New Zealand in prominence of production of trees useful for ornamental and forestry purposes. The society is promoting the preservation of wild flowers along the highways and has done much to protect redwood forests.

The party will be headed by Dr. W. L. Johnson, chairman of botany, University of California. Dr. W. C. Blasdale and Dr. Allen Ehlers, of the same institution, Miss Anna Ehlers, and Miss Ruth Forsyth, science division, of the Oakland Technical High School, Carl Sabach, Dahlia expert, Dr. J. F. Card, George B. Turnis, W. C. Carruth, Miss Amy Klinehart, Dr. Scoville, University of Brussels, and others active in this work.

Liquor Tax Ruling Affects Theft Cases

WASHINGTON, May 22.—Distillers are held exempt from extra taxes on liquor withdrawn from warehouses for non-beverage purposes if diverted by theft to illegal uses under an opinion by Attorney General Mellon and made public last night. The opinion was given in response to a request of the secretary for a ruling as to the liability of distillers for the so-called differential tax on distilled spirits is $4.20 a gallon.

In the absence of intention by the distiller to evade the law, Daugherty ruled, the differential tax could not be applied if the liquor was actually withdrawn for non-beverage purposes.

"However," he said, "in cases where the distilled spirit are withdrawn for non-beverage purposes and are subsequently diverted to beverage purposes with the knowledge or connivance of the distiller, it is my opinion that the distiller is liable for the so-called differential tax if there is shown to be reasonable presumption of knowledge on

Pioneer California Woman Dies Here

NERVOUS FAINTING SPELLS

Mrs. Werner tells how they Yield to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

CAMDEN, N. J.—"Before my baby was born I was run down and weak, had pains in my back and stomach, was very nervous and would have fainting spells. I certainly suffered awfully with those nervous fainting spells. I did not know anyone at times and used to scream. A doctor treated me but did not seem to do much good. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and soon felt a change and could do my work without pain and was cured of those nervous spells. Now I have a nice baby girl and had an easy time at birth, thanks to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. WILLIAM C. WERNER, 1216 Van Hook St., Camden, N. J.

When a wife finds her energies are flagging, she is weak, nervous, suffers from backache, the "blues" she should build her system up at once by taking that standard woman's medicine, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as did Mrs. Werner.

If there is anything about your condition you do not understand write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., about your health.

At the beautiful home of Mr and Mrs. Charles E. Peacock at 1115 Chatham Road Thursday evening Mrs. Minerva Gerstein and William Howard Emery Jr. were married by Judge Quinn. Roses sweetpeas and tulips were the flowers used in the decorations of the living room. The bride wore a gown of hand-embroidered georgette and lace and carried brides roses, lilies-of-the-valley and maidenhair.

The bride was preceded by Miss Canitile Fountaine, 3-year-old daughter of Mr and Mrs. Don Fountaine as ring bearer. Miss Beth Cloyo was bridesmaid and Walter Landsten was best man. After three weeks honeymoon spent in Oregon Mr and Mrs. Emery Jr. will make their home here.

Mrs Estoly Ward (Jean Waste) and Miss Alice Thomas were joint hostesses at a tea Friday afternoon at the home of Miss Thomas' parents Mr and Mrs. W. P. Thomas of Telegraph avenue when Miss Mary Park was the guest of honor. It was a children's party, twenty-five of the guests being young girls in pink gingham dresses. A basket filled with gifts was presented to the bride-elect. Blue and gold were carried out in the appointments of spring flowers.

Airships Do Fire Watch on 750 Miles of "Forest Front"

Aviators of the United States forest service in California last season traveled 285,820 miles, or a distance more than fifteen times the circumference of the globe, according to records compiled recently.

In their flights the aviators patrolled from tree 24,000 acres of wooded lands, greater than 10,000,000,000 feet of valuable timber conservatively estimated by the forest service as worth $2,000,000,000.

Twenty-six planes took part in the forest flights, and in spite of the extreme hardships entailed by flying over large fires there were three fatalities.

The flying patrol was from the Ninth Aero Squadron of the army which included a radio service which also proved most effective in locating the fires.

The squadron base during the season was Matthei Field, Sacramento, with branch bases at Red Bluff, Fresno and March Field.

WILL EXTEND WORK

This season, according to present plans, the airship forest service will be extended to Oregon, Idaho, and Nevada.

The patrol lacked little of the romance and glamor of war, although its mission was essentially a peaceful one.

Often there was necessity for instant action and one particular test of mobility was called for when thirty-two fires broke out in the Sonora forests in two days.

There were plenty of good fighters on hand but less experienced leaders.

An "S. O. S." call was sent to Sonora 200 miles away, and in a few hours two forest officers from that place were directing the fighting.

NATION FOUNDED ON HOME, WEEKS TELLS ASSEMBLY

Presbyterians in Conference
Told of Churches Place in Restoration.

WINONA LAKE, Ind., May 23.—In connection with the efforts of the Presbyterian church to promote universal peace, John W. Weeks, secretary of war, today presented to the Presbyterian General Assembly, now in session here, the following statement giving his views regarding the function of the church in the solution of the nation's problems:

"The first line of defense of the republic from the enemy without and the enemy within, is not the navy nor the army, but the home. This great nation was founded on the little group of sturdy Christian homes that constituted the Plymouth colony, and it is to these American homes that America owes its greatness and power, not to its commerce, its mighty fleets or its victorious armies. It is the source of our strength and we cannot lessen its influence or importance without dangerously weakening the very foundation of the republic. Keep the home fires burning and Bolshevism and I. W. W.ism and anarchy will die of malnutrition."

"There are dangers in the land interests which are steadily undermining the home life of America, and the tendency of our modern life is to seek a substitute for the home. In returning the nation to a state of normalcy, our first duty is the restoration of the sanctity, the integrity and the importance of the American home. The church is in more intimate relationship with the home than any other agency in the body politic, and in these days of reconstruction the church can, if it will, exert a steady and sobering influence in a time when men are inclined to think clearly, and can render the nation and itself no greater service than to undertake, as its part in the readjustment of the affairs of the country, the re-establishment of the old-fashioned American home."

School Boy Back At Work On Super-Sofa

By special permission of the superintendent of schools, a school boy in high school has been allowed to journey daily to the Lockwood school to finish a sofa which he started two years ago.

The boy, when at Lockwood, joined the manual training department. He wanted to build a sofa himself, so he began to plot. He began to plot a super-sofa. It was to be ornate, intricate and gorgeous. The plans for the sofa were so stately that even the creator got lost in them sometimes, but he stuck to it with a bulldog tenacity and, by the time it was finished, from Lockwood, the sofa was finally finished.

The boy went to high school, but his mind and heart were still with the sofa. He found he couldn't get back to Lockwood without special permission. Negotiations started, with a happy ending.

Boy and sofa are now reunited.

Woman Driver Held After Auto Accident

SAN FRANCISCO, May 23.—Driving an automobile accident at Minnehaha avenue and Judah street at 11 o'clock last night, Mrs. Sadie Pulien of 2124 Geary street, who was driving one of the machines, was arrested after she had given battle to Patrolman Frank Lynch of the Park station. Leo Marchand, of 606 Eleventh avenue, who, driving his car on Minnehaha avenue, was at the intersection of Judah street, his machine collided with that of Mrs. Pulien, who was riding with George Harris of 2412 Howard street. The Pulien car turned over and Harris was hurt. Officer Lynch was detained and investigated when he questioned Mrs. Pulien, who declared that she struck him, seized his necktie and attempted to choke him. He charged her with reckless driving, resisting an officer and disturbing the peace.

Three Hurt in Fight, Two Soldiers Held

Two soldiers started to fight last night with the proprietress, Miss Anna Couts, of a shooting gallery at 906 Broadway. Three of her friends objected and they told the soldiers to move and the fight was on.

Louis V. Hendricks of the St. James Hotel, who told the soldiers to move on, was struck over the head with a wine bottle. He and his two friends were ready to go to the hospital when the police ambulance arrived. The two soldiers were arrested. They gave their names as Louis V. Powell and Frank Ayer, both stationed at the Fredonia. They are being held.

Hendricks and his two friends, Jack Dugan, 439 Ninth street, and Ois Lloyd, 1432 Curtis street, were treated for cuts and bruises about the face.

Appreciation of the publicity given to Sunday School work by various papers throughout the state, and especial appreciation of the manner in which The TRIBUNE covered the recent state Sunday school convention, held in Merced, was expressed in a resolution, passed at the final session of the convention. The resolution is as follows:

"Be it resolved that we approve the helpful publicity given by the local press and such papers throughout the state as have given space to Sunday school work, and commend The OAKLAND TRIBUNE for sending Mr. Ross H. Ryder to cover the proceedings of the convention. We further wish to express our appreciation of the services of the many who have helped to make the convention so enjoyable and profitable."

Queen Esther Theme

Rev. H. A. Van Winkle, pastor of the First Christian church, spoke last night on the topic "The Scepter of Power," based upon the story of Queen Esther and her relations with her husband, the king. He said: "Bureaucracy with its responsibility of rule, like her people, which were hanging in the balance, she stepped into what might become the death chamber, saying, 'If I perish, I perish.' Her only scepter of power has shifted from the hand to the head—from a crown on the outside of the head to brains within the head. The real king today is the thinker. Is not this fact proven before our very eyes as we see the 'crown' placed in the interior of the state are naturally dependent on Oakland and San Francisco dealers for their supplies."

"But," he continued, "the business from the country districts is not enough to offset the large overhead expense entailed in keeping sales and office forces at work."

CAMPAGN PLANNED

Coined with the extension of the lockout to Alameda, Marin and San Mateo counties, the Builders' Exchange is planning a campaign of education throughout the state. This week meetings of builders, bankers and Chambers of Commerce will be held in the majority of cities of California. Thursday night representatives of the San Francisco Builders' Exchange will go to Vallejo for a meeting and on Saturday night they will be in Fresno. Other dates for meetings will be announced later.

T. B. Heath and B. T. Todd, representatives of the union, said no vote was taken. They added none was necessary as the discussion showed the men were unanimous in their declaration to stand by their original proposition.

Secretary Davis was called to hear a report of a committee which had been in conference with Secretary Davis at Washington, and as a result of which, it was reported, a possible basis of settlement had been reached.

The proposals were reported to involve acceptance by the men of a reduction in wages and the granting of concessions as to overtime.

SAFETY IN THE HOME.—A series of educational lectures by the regular dealers will not seriously hamper work of independent contractors, now under way, P. H. McCarthy, president of the Building Trades Council, declared today.

The organization has formed its own material company, and states that deliveries are being made promptly to all persons calling on the council. He said that more men than have been in work any time since the declaration of the lockout, reported on various independent jobs this morning.

LOCAL STRIKE UNCHANGED

Although word was received from Washington recently that the nation-wide maritime controversy had been tentatively settled, there was no let up in the shipping strike here today. The message from J. T. Todd, secretary of the Atlantic Gulf and Pacific Council, Maritime Engineers, which said "no settlement had been reached," George Flanagan, local secretary of the organization, declared that the strikers will not accept the wage proposals.

"The Marine engineers," said Flanagan, "will not accept the 15 percent reduction in wages. They are however willing to accept a modification in present working hours and overtime."

The Pacific Mail Steamship Company yesterday secured a non-union crew of engineers to dispatch the steamer San Juan from San Francisco to Central America and Panama. At noon today the Creole State, operated by the Pacific Mail, left for Calcutta via Oriental ports and on Saturday the Golden State will sail for the Newport will sail for Oriental ports and Panama respectively.

EDUCATIONAL NOTES

Franklin school is to hold closing exercises on the evening of May 26. The band, orchestra and solo musicians of the school are practicing for a musical evening. Games of a social nature will be played for the evening, including Wanda Hermann and Madeline Cornell, who will sing and recite. Friends of the school are invited to help them celebrate the coming of vacation.

"People when they attend church, should remember they are coming to meet their Lord and should wear the best they have, inwardly and outwardly. Shabby clothes often indicate a shabby character. Shoddy clothes are no indication of piety."

"The raiment of righteousness will alone pass us through Heaven's gate."

BUSINESS TRAINED PUPILS GRADUATED

When the various high schools of Oakland graduate their students this year, there will be several hundred young men and women from the Smith Hughes classes, which give practical industrial instruction, and many of these boys and girls will be in position to take their place in the business ranks immediately.

There are 903 students now enrolled in the Smith Hughes classes. These students receive training in sheet metal work, pattern shops, machine shops and carpenter shops.

THREE CELEBRATIONS AT OAKLAND HIGH

There will be three celebrations for the close of the term at Oakland High School on Wednesday, May 25. The Boys' Glee Club will entertain on the regular stage at the school hall. On May 26 the Girls' Glee Club will entertain in honor of the 100 graduates. On May 27 the school gymnasium will be the setting for a Welsh play. "The Deacon's Hat."

The following will be the cast for the graduation play: Ethel Abrahams as "Ethel, George, Ethel"; Hugh Lucien Self as Deacon Roberts; John Timeman as Tom Morris; "the sheep"; Virginia Walter and Mrs. Jones as "the Wash"; and Thelma Clune as Mrs. Jenkins. The play is one of characterization, depicting Welsh peasant life and requires Welsh dialogue. The play will be followed by a 40-minute operetta, "Parquette." This school is acquiring a reputation for presenting dainty and unusual bits of dramatic entertainment.

MILLS, LUMBER YARDS IN FOUR COUNTIES CLOSE

Both Sides in Building Strike Determined to Hold to Own Terms.

The unions of ship workers on strike about the bay have decided without meeting or vote not to accept the compromise offer tentatively agreed upon by Secretary Davis and the Marine Engineers' Beneficial Association, executives of the association here said today.

It is no use calling the men to a meeting to vote on the proposal," George Flanagan, secretary of the association local, said. "They do not want a meeting and they do not want a vote."

The first of the large fleet of Pacific Mail steamers tied up here since the strike started on May 1, said today.

The San Juan, for Cristobal and west coast points, sailed shortly after 11 o'clock with a non-union crew.

The Creole State was due to depart this afternoon for the Orient. Once before announced for sailing and postponed, officials of the Pacific Mail line declared she would "positively" said this afternoon.

OFFICE FAILS IN N. Y.

NEW YORK, May 23.—Proposals of Federal mediators looking to a settlement of the marine strike, in effect since May 1, were unanimously rejected by the men on Monday of Local 32 and 89 of the Builders' Beneficial Association.

The meeting was called to hear a report of a committee which had been in conference with Secretary Davis at Washington, and as a result of which, it was reported, a possible basis of settlement had been reached.

The proposals were reported to involve acceptance by the men of a reduction in wages and the granting of concessions as to overtime.

DAVIE HINTS AT TAKING PART IN COUNTY POLITICS

Supervisors Told If His Redistricting Plan Fails He'll "Go to People."

A hint that he will move his political machine into county politics should the Supervisors fail to redistrict the county according to his plans was made today by Mayor John L. Davie in a letter to his members of the city council. Davie said that the Supervisors had "their judgment forged by attempting to create artificial lines" so that the Supervisors might perpetuate themselves in office. The letter was filed by the board without comment.

The paragraph which hints that the Mayor will take a part in county politics follows:

"If my request that you rectify the unfair assignment of representation to Oakland is not acted upon by you, I will unquestionably at the next election of supervisors in those districts of Oakland call the attention of the Oakland voters to the manner in which they have been cheated out of their rights by political chicanery and impress upon them the necessity of voting for Oakland candidates at such election."

The first district to include Alameda and all of the county east of the eastern boundary of Oakland; the second district to include Berkeley and all of the districts north of the northern boundary of Oakland; and the three remaining districts to be comprised of Oakland, Piedmont and Emeryville, is the plan urged by the Mayor.

Continuing the mayor said:

"Your difficulty is due to the fact that you have not adopted or considered the simplest and most logical plan, but have had your judgment forged by attempting to create artificial lines to perpetuate yourselves in office. If the interests of the Oakland citizens are exclusively considered and your personal political advantages maximized there is no difficulty."

"Section 4926 of the Political Code provides that the supervisorial districts be so laid out as to be as nearly equal in population as possible. The law is clear. All I ask of you is implicit obedience to the plain mandates of the law. I suggest that you redistrict as follows:

"The first district to include Alameda and all of the county east of the eastern boundary of Oakland; the second district to include Berkeley and all of the county north of the northern boundary of Oakland; the three remaining districts to be comprised of Oakland, Piedmont and Emeryville. This plan is simple and natural and gives equal representation according to population."

Stephens Asks Return of Alleged Swindler

SACRAMENTO, May 23.—Governor Stephens today issued a requisition on the State of Maryland for the return from Baltimore to Los Angeles of St. Lawrence Harris, wanted to answer to the grand jury indictments charging him with obtaining money under false pretenses. It is alleged that he swindled Kate Jackson and W. W. Washburn of Los Angeles out of several thousand dollars through the sale of worthless stocks.

LOVE LETTERS OF SOLDIER TO WIFE WIN MAN DIVORCE

Messages From 'Godson' Bore Affectionate Passages, Husband Testifies.

Love letters from a soldier in France to Mrs. Dorothy A. Ahrens helped George D. Ahrens win a divorce, which was granted by Superior Judge T. W. Harris.

Ahrens said his wife told him she was writing the letters because she was acting as god-mother to someone in France, but that he found a package of love letters in her bureau drawer which did not sound as though they had emanated from a god-child.

Ahrens also said his wife told him she could not remember whom she had been with when she spent a week in the Santa Cruz mountains. They were married in 1913.

RENT SUIT FILED BY DUSTED GIRLS

After the wife of Robert W. Farmer objected to the amount of time he spent on a job of repair work in a room rented to two women, one a University of California student and the other an Oakland school teacher, the tenants were asked to vacate the room, for which they claimed to have paid $36 in advance.

As a result a suit to recover this sum has been filed in Alameda County by Attorney Abe P. Lezon on behalf of Miss Lucia Saxon and Miss Bessie E. Koller. Robert W. Farmer is the defendant. He and his wife live at 1732 Webster street, where the room in question also is located.

According to the story told by the young women, it was agreed when they rented the room that Farmer should give up his apartment. It is claimed Mrs. Farmer remarked on the length of time the work had taken him. This led to a discussion, the result of which was that Farmer declared he would order the tenants to vacate, which he did. Mrs. Farmer, it is stated, objected to this procedure, but Farmer carried it out, though he failed to return the money paid for rent.

The Sunday audiences laughed uproariously in the fun in "A Widow by Proxy," a farce-comedy, which is good for no end of amusement. Miss Bryant is in the center of the fun, gayly, and her rollicking laugh, her winsome personality, and the cost of which she is the mistress, made the performance seem a rare gem of comedy.

The Sunday audiences laughed uproariously in the fun in "A Widow by Proxy," and it is quite safe to say the pieces will be accompanied by a goodly crowd packed houses of pleased people throughout the remainder of the week.

The management announces a pretentious production of the Oliver Morosco success, "Pretty Mrs. Smith," next Sunday afternoon, when Nance Bryant's beautiful singing voice will be in evidence for the first time this season.

T. & D.

Everything that goes to make Mary Pickford the adored of screen stars is included in "Through the Back Door," the current attraction at the T. & D. theater, which yesterday turned crowds away from the big playhouse.

Can't you picture Mary Pickford trying to keep a candlelight vigil to get up on his husband—and the hundred and one antics that make her Mary Pickford?

If you can, you'll enjoy "Through the Back Door." It is wholesome entertainment; humorous and tragic in spots but distinctly Mary Pickford.

"Dead Men Tell No Tales," a second attraction on this week's T. & D. program, is big enough in plot and undertaking to be listed among the stupendous pictures of the year. A Snooky comedy, songs by Constance Regan, and the usual excellent comedy numbers by Fred Forman's orchestra offer a program of unusual attractiveness.

AMERICAN

Bebe Daniels is appearing in "Two Weeks With Pay" at the American this week.

It is a queer coincidence that Miss Daniels was working on this play when she was engaged in spending in San Luis Obispo, and she served ten days without pay.

Jack Holt appears as a star in his own right on the same bill in "The Mask." John Wharry Lewis and his orchestra offer a special music program for the double bill, and "Stories of the Day" is an added feature.

"East Lynne" is announced for an early release by the American.

PANTAGES

A group of leaping greyhounds claim attention on the new bill at Pantages.

The Jacks and the ace of spades, and the Temple Four, who sing delightfully. Another pair of vocalists is Leroy and Mabel Hart. They call their act "Love in the Southland." Ernest Hiatt's a monologist with "nothing serious" to offer. Berg and English are a clever pair of acrobats. The Royal Pekin acrobates. The feature picture shows Edith Haller in "Just Outside the Door."

CHIMES

The way in which audiences are receiving Douglas Fairbanks in "The Nut" at the Chimes theater testifies to the popularity of this star.

Portraying a love-lorn inventor, he has a way of attracting and then inventing his way out, all for the sake of a girl. The story is laid in Greenwich Village and furnishes a pictorial tour of this noted quarter. "The Nut" will be screened at the Chimes last times today and tomorrow.

Easterly dancers are looking eagerly forward to Thursday night at the Arcadia, which will be celebrated as William Tell night. The gentlemen dancers will balance apples on their heads as they step out the lively terpsichorean dance. Harvey Parry, who is a new diver at the beach, caused much sensation by his dives from the high diving tower into the long outdoor swimming pool. Many people thronged the park, the new circuses, especially the climbing monkeys, drawing a large share of the attention and patronage of the amusement-seekers.

HENS OBJECT TO TWO PET. "KICK" IN THEIR TOBACCO

Berkeley, May 23.—Two-and-a-half per cent beer may be guiltless of a kick, but two per cent tobacco is too powerful to suit the refined tastes of Petaluma chickens, feathered. So say the poultry-raisers and now the experts at the University of California and the Farm School at Davis are holding scientific conferences with Lady Nicotine to determine just what brand of tobacco will be acceptable to the biddies.

The chickens, of the clucking, cackling variety at least, do not smoke cigarettes, as yet. They have only progressed far enough along that line to use tobacco as a diet, one of the university experts having discovered that tobacco dust mixed with poultry food will destroy a troublesome intestinal parasite.

Formerly, tobacco dust contained only one per cent nicotine. But now it is two per cent strong and the hens have expressed their objection to the higher grade tobacco dust by laying fewer eggs.

WASHINGTON May 23—Prohibition Commissioner Kramer is rendered himself liable to prosecution and a jail sentence because of over-expenditure of the monthly allowance for prohibition enforcement granted by Congressional appropriation. Chairman Good of the House appropriations committee charged in the House this afternoon.

Good declared that $6,900,000 had been appropriated for prohibition enforcement and that under the law Kramer was obliged to divide this into twelve monthly allotments. Because of his failure to do this Good said, the prohibition commissioner had forced it necessary to dismiss 700 prohibition agents and employees, the majority of his force. This act renders him liable to prosecution, Good declared.

Representative Byrnes of Tennessee had previously charged that Secretary of the Treasury Mellon was responsible for the let-down in prohibition enforcement because he had failed to seek a deficiency appropriation.

'MISS DUFFY' IN SUITS S. F. WOMAN

SAN FRANCISCO, May 21.—The second action of Mrs. Eva Fay Isbell, 193 Belvedere street, again was brought into prominence today when the identity of the alleged affianced was made known. Mrs. Isbell was granted a divorce on April 11 and one of the charges was that the woman in the case had offered to support the wife if she would agree to give up her husband and obtain a legal separation. The woman referred to is Miss Frances Duffy of Seattle. It developed today that the Miss Duffy referred to was not of Seattle and that Duffy was her maiden name. She is living at a local apartment house.

Among the memoranda handed to Judge Morgan with the "affinity letters" at the time of the trial was a reference to a Mrs. Florence Duffy, a woman who was a widow of the late Colonel J. E. Blithem, publisher of the Seattle times. This memorandum was published at the time, but the Mrs. Duffy referred to had nothing whatever to do with the case. How the memorandum changed to be included in the papers could not be explained today by Attorney Anthony Podesta, one of the lawyers for the plaintiff. Mrs. Isbell herself, however, was quick to declare that Mrs. Florence Blithem of Seattle had no connection whatever with the case.

"I do not know how that memorandum was handed to Judge Morgan," she asserted. "The woman I referred to as Miss Duffy is now living in San Francisco under her married name. I think she was a Frances Duffy before her marriage, but certainly Mrs. Florence Blithem, was not concerned in this matter and I never heard of her."

New School Voted by County District

Returns from the school bond election held in the Tehachayon school district Saturday, showing the decision to have been virtually unanimous in favor of the bonds, have been received by County Clerk George E. Gross. Of 120 votes cast 99 were for the measure.

The proposal was for $11,000 in bonds for the purchase of grounds and the erection of a school building at the corner of Cemetery and Main roads, about three miles south of Hayward. The school trustees, who advocated the plan, are E. D. McDonald, Ernest Lang and W. H. Maher. All were elected in March.

BROADWAY

Offering a remarkable range of character types, Opie Read's delightful novel, "The Jacklins," is at the Broadway theater today for the last time, with Monte Blue as the star.

"The Jacklins" is a story of Southern country folks after the Civil war. There are two pretty maidens interwoven in the action and it contains all other requisite elements such as suspense, mystery and appeal.

Thomas Sancti appears on the same program in "The Tempest." A Fantomas mystery story will be added to today's offering.

Jack London's "Star Rover" and Alice Lake in "The Misfit Wife" are programmed tomorrow.

NEW FRANKLIN

Friday night will conclude the three-week engagement of the three-feature bill, headed by Mae Murray's "The Gilded Lily," Harold Lloyd's "Now or Never," and the Vandenberg jungle pygmy pictures, at the New Franklin theater, and on Saturday will come "Sentimental Comedy" at the head of another big bill.

"The Gilded Lily" is Mae Murray's first eight-reel feature. The story is of a dancer who was forced to choose between two men, "Now or Never," Lloyd's first feature-length comedy.

Jack Holt appears as a star in his own right on the same bill in "The Mask." John Wharry Lewis and his orchestra offer a special music program for the double bill, and "Stories of the Day" is an added feature.

"East Lynne" is announced for an early release by the American.

LOEW'S STATE

W.H. Rogers, in "Boys Will Be Boys," opened at Loew's State theater yesterday. The picture is well worth seeing.

The Sherlock Sisters and Clinton headline the varieties program. Morey, Seppa and Dean hold a high place in the bill. George E. O'Connor and company in "2700," a comedy playlet; Melville and Stetson Jr. have musical duo, and Busse, Toy Territors are others on the bill.

"The Gilded Lily" is Mae Murray's first eight-reel feature. The story is of a dancer who was forced to choose between two men, "Now or Never," Lloyd's first feature-length comedy.

Portia Ash promises something original and new in his weekly musical act.

Commencing Wednesday, to continue until Saturday night, Ralph H. Ince and Zenna Keefe are to be seen in "Out of the Snows," a story of the great north.

Stephen Stech orchestra leader, is preparing special music for the evening.

One of the best patronized days in the history of the amusement park was celebrated at the big amusement park yesterday, with a special attendance from San Francisco and other bay cities.

One of the main events of the program was the special motorboat race between the Richmond and San Jose teams. Dodge 'em, the new $30,000 amusement concession, attracted an unusual number of visitors and there will be a series of special events for next Saturday and Sunday.

NEPTUNE BEACH

Yesterday and Saturday were two days of joy for the children at Neptune Beach, when thousands of youngsters were given free admission and free rides on the scenic railway, whip, aeroplane and carousel. Harvey Parry, who is a new diver at the beach, caused much sensation by his dives from the high diving tower into the long outdoor swimming pool. Many people thronged the park, the new circuses, especially the climbing monkeys, drawing a large share of the attention and patronage of the amusement-seekers.

Beauty Sought Through Ballet By University Dancing Class

Secrets of Grace Imparted by Former Chorus Girl to Apt Students.

BERKELEY, May 23.—Wouldn't be beautiful fair lady? Then becomes a ballet dancer! Miss Leonora Thompson, former chorus girl, now teaching dancing at the University of California's inter-session, preceding the regular summer classes, speaks thusly.

On the Berkeley campus Miss Thompson is teaching a half-hundred college girls the art of being graceful and beautiful.

For in dancing of the right sort, says the fair instructor, lies the last secret of beauty.

Ballet dancing as a substitute for "aesthetics" and "calisthenics" is Miss Thompson's method of promoting beauty.

All of the secrets of the chorus, the hard hours of training and the beauty of the ultimate production are explained unfailingly for her college pupils by Miss Thompson, who as a former ballet dancer in the "Chi Chin Chow" company, was applauded by audiences throughout the country. A graduate of the Sargent School of Physical Education, Miss Thompson started as a physical education teacher, but gave this up to turn to dancing as a real promoter of youth and beauty.

Studying in Paris, Miss Thompson came to this country to find actual stage experience as a chorus maid.

National ballet school where in girls might be taught to do ballet dancing in the development of real American dancers. Miss Thompson's plan is to start a school at the inter-session for principal students in the regular university classes.

"In the East they are beginning to wake with a start that American girls make some of the best dancers we have," says Miss Thompson. "At last they are beginning to start a ballet school where American girls will be given the same opportunities that foreign countries have given their children for many years."

Miss Thompson's pupils at the inter-session are principally students in the regular university classes. Among the number are the Misses Margaret Willey, Calverna Lingo, Bertha Biernath and Genevieve Nicholson.

The California Press Association selected Saturday from the Grand Canyon of Arizona and the Petrified Forest, after an absence of a week.

The trip was made in a special Pullman car chartered for the trip and an enjoyable time was had. While at the Canyon the members witnessed a snow storm. The editors are enthusiastic over the grandeur of the Canyon and the startling wonders of the great petrified forest.

Fugitive Mail Train Bandit Still Free

SACRAMENTO, May 23.—Roy Gardner, sought for the robbery of an overvalued mail car, has not been captured Friday night, has again eluded his captors. He is believed hiding in Sacramento and the search has been taken up here.

Gardner, a man recently appointed as a criminal consultant to him, he was entitled to apply for his freedom.

Accompanying the application there were filed a number of affidavits, including those of Franklin K. Griffin, John McDonald and William Pine, setting forth that Mooney did not have a fair trial and that some of the witnesses had been tampered with.

According to Parker, the attorney anxious to hear the argument of this strange wrinkle of the law, other than defendants and relatives of the defendant, may save the newspapermen were allowed in the courtroom. Every stairway and avenue of approach was guarded.

ONLY AVENUE LEFT.

Following Mooney's conviction and sentence charges of perjury were made against one of the chief witnesses, Frank C. Oxman, Judge Griffin was powerless to grant the defendant a new trial but appealed to the governor in his behalf.

Today Attorney Byron Parker, who reopened the case, was present with a score of legal authorities.

In opening his argument he called attention to the fact that the writ of audita querela was intended as a remedy for every wrong and was utilized in this case only because Mooney had used every other legal weapon and still believed he was wrongfully imprisoned.

He argued that as it was only within the last two months that Mooney was actually apprised of a criminal conspiracy against him, he was entitled to apply for his freedom.

Mooney from the prison to which he was sentenced for life by Judge Franklin Griffin. For nearly five years Mooney has been in custody denied executive clemency, although a pardon was requested for him by many high officials in the state.

Mooney was being brought from San Quentin in an open boat. Mooney was taken heavily guarded to the anteroom of the Hall of Justice, where photographs and motion pictures of his mother, wife and himself were taken. When Judge Louderback took his seat the courtroom was filled, principally by attorneys anxious to hear the argument of this strange wrinkle of the law.

OAKLAND PLAYERS SAY UMPIRE BYRON STARTED FIGHT WITH PINELLI

Sacramento Is a Real Baseball City Now and Serves Ice With the Soda Water.

By BOB SHAND

SACRAMENTO, May 22.—"I care not who owns the Pacific Coast League as long as I have the soda water privilege at the Sacramento park," chirped the millionaire vendor of pop at Buffalo Park yesterday, and the gent said a whole lot. Every fan in the first six rows of the grandstand, the seats that were unprotected from the sun, went for at least half a dozen bottles apiece and some Oakland fans, unaccustomed to the Sacramento heat offered some of the soda butchers a retaining fee to stick around and be their individual life-saver. "Ice cold soda water" was the favorite song of the Senators yesterday afternoon and stick this in black type: THERE WAS ICE, REAL ICE, PARKED AROUND THE POP.

At the ball games at the fights, at every gathering you have heard the slogan, "There are cold soda water." You have wondered if the merchant passed out the stuff to shave with or to drink. In Sacramento they have real ice cold drinks at all times and you can move the Capitol from the city they can remain in the hall of fame on the strength of the cold pop.

What would indicate that it was considerably more comfortable yesterday. The natives didn't seem to mind the heat, but the gents and ladies from the bay had a terrible time remaining intact. Felt like they

Next time anyone chirps about Sacramento being a poor baseball town and in danger of losing its Coast League status, single right me. Old Buffalo has just jammed to the fences yesterday and there was an overflow in the outfield. Of course, Umpire Bill Byron will probably try to quiet down the crowd, but the customers swapped dough for tickets to see the Oaks and Senators play ball and if they score many more games like that of yesterday afternoon, Lou Moreing will have to stock up some more

Lou Moreing, president of the franchise and by the very simple expedient of getting together a real ball club he is marking as many fans and fans every day, most of whom are bugling on the E. L. circuit. The Sacramento fans appreciate good baseball and they are willing to pay for the same. They're getting it this season and their sales are up in the race, hence the enthusiasm and the hate that is being added to the Moreing millions.

A couple of hundred Oakland fans saw the game in the Sun, but the Oaks had two on the ninth when Cather went in as a pinch-hitter. A one-ply wallet on the part of the umpire will pass a turned defeat into victory, but Ted Cather will not be swayed ones.

Before the game, was over Byron stopped the umpire long enough to make a speech to the customers to the effect:

"Ladies and gentlemen, I am here to unpins a ball game and not to be abused by the players."

Pinelli, who was the umpire in his dressing room, expressed regret over the incident.

Superintendent Del McElroy went to Cather Saturday night to talk mat with him over a C. E. Ewing and Justice protest with the league president against the umpiring of Byron.

Ewing will take the matter up with McElroy today. It is likely that the singing arbitrator will not of

Fittery, Couch Have Twirled The Most Wins

George (Lefty) Winn of the Oaks Clings to His Perfect Record.

Reinhart of Los Angeles is topping the Pacific Coast league pitchers with four wins and no defeats, while George Winn of the Oaks is next with three wins and no defeats. But John Fittery of the Seals and Paul Herold of the Rainiers are the real leaders. Fittery has won ten and lost but one game while Paul Fittery has won ten and lost but two. Frank Schellenbach of Vernon and "Hunk" Schorr of Seattle are also well up in the race.

The record of wins and losses for the Coast League pitchers, including all games of yesterday follow:

W. L. Reinhart (Los Angeles) 10-0

TEX RICKARD NOT WORRYING ABOUT THE GATE RECEIPTS

AMERICAN AMATEUR GOLFERS ARE OFF TO FINE START IN THE ENGLISH CHAMPIONSHIPS

GATE RECEIPTS SHOULD BE WELL OVER MILLION DOLLARS, SAYS CORBETT

Former Heavyweight Champion Was First Boxer to Demand a Big Purse.

By JAMES J. CORBETT,
Former World's Heavyweight Champion
(Written expressly for the International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Pa., May 23.—All records for championship boxing receipts will fall July 2 when Dempsey and Carpenter meet.

The turnstiles will click off a merry million-dollar tune.

The boxers will earn the biggest dividends in the history of the game and Promoter Tex Rickard will realize a record sum for himself. When one pauses to consider that a man in the public eye should be worth a fair share of what he can attract to the box office, criticism of the financial features of the big fight seems unfair.

In the face of conditions of the ring today, and particularly of the match, I do not believe Rickard's guarantee to the fighters is too large.

Dempsey will receive 75 per cent for his end and Carpenter will get 21 per cent. No doubt their shares of the receipts will total well above the $600,000 originally offered.

Corbett Was First to Be Given Big Purse.

In the old days of boxing such purses were never dreamed of. The first big purse ever fought for in this country was offered by John Jackson and it was only back in '98 by the California Athletic Club of San Francisco. This match was made after Jack fought Choyński and when the match was over Jackson demanded a purse of $10,000 to be split $500 to the winner and $1500 to the loser. He thought I was crazy. Everybody laughed at me. But the club finally agreed.

"I'll never forget that fight for two reasons. In the first place, Jackson and I fought by rounds and not by the minute. Last, but not least, I did not get a cent for my efforts. When the sixty-first round ended they declared the bout not counted and was split evenly. The money I am sure Jackson got paid for his later suggested a return match before the club. He wouldn't have done that otherwise."

Boxers Got Big Purses

At San Francisco.

Prior to that time any big money carried off by boxers was the result of side bets. The promoters never dreamt of it.

Tonight Salt Lake City fought for a purse of $30,000 and $20,000 stake money in New Orleans in 1882. In 1887, Fitzsimmons and I drew $22,000 at Atlantic City. The gate money was $10,000. In 1890, in St. Louis, was $56,350 and when Jeff and I fought in San Francisco in 1903 the boxing public turned $6,750 into the box office.

In those days $10,000 was big money. It went almost as far as $50,000 would go today. The cost of living was reasonable and the public was more generous. My grandpa was indeed fortunate. So I consider that in many ways I was almost as well paid for several of my fights as the stars of our day.

Beginning tomorrow I will take up with my readers a series of discussions of the important fights Carpenter and myself had with Jeff. Within short time I will be with the fighters again and by that time I expect they will be showing something worth while in training.

BASEBALL GOSSIP

Batting averages got an unmerciful flogging at Salt Lake yesterday when Vernon and the Bees played a pair of games which will go down in the annals of baseball.

The day settled the two teams a total of 65 hits, of which an even dozen were home runs.

Vernon won the morning game, 19 to 12; Vernon, 22 hits and the Bees, 17. In the afternoon Salt Lake won, 14 to 3. The hits stood Vernon, 3; Salt Lake, 1.

The two teams played more sane baseball. San Francisco took a double-header from Seattle, 3 to 0 and 7 to 4. Sacramento beat Oakland twice, 3 to 2 being the score in both games.

Portland and Los Angeles couldn't play. It rained.

OAK INDEPENDENTS WIN.

The Independents of Oakland journeyed to Torney yesterday and they defeated the Union Oil Company team to 3. Donnisson, having been bough allowing eight hits, was master in the pinches. Simonson, left-fielder of the Independents, featured a running one-handed circus catch.

IN CARPENTIER'S TRAINING CAMP

When M. Georges Carpentier doesn't like his soups, or finds the filet mignon too well done, he challenges M. Le Chef to a duel. Then they don the mitts and the matter is settled out of court. For the chef of the French champion's kitchen—in training quarters—is "Battling" Marcot (christened Henri), a one-time sparring partner who can take and give a husky wallop. The top photo shows Georges Carpentier and Henri Marcot on the porch of Carpentier's new "home"—the training quarters at Manhasset, Long Island.—Underwood & Underwood Photo.

DEMPSEY WILL BE IN BEST SHAPE OF HIS CAREER

—JACK KEARNS

By TAD.
(Written for International News Service)

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., May 23.—"You can say for me that Dempsey will be in better shape for this fight than he has ever been in his life before," said Jack Kearns today. "A lot of people think Jack will be stale. Don't let that worry you. Everything here is running on schedule. Jack doesn't do five minutes of hard work each day. That big guy eats like a horse and he needs exercise for his appetite."

"He couldn't sit around all day, soak up sunshine and be healthy without that work. He's not a natural athlete and I don't think he will last it for eight or ten days yet. Why he's only kidding with those sparring partners now. He's getting his punches out. You fellows may think he is looking for a kill but he isn't."

He taps a light bag, bumps a few sparring partners together with his feet and says that about all for the day. "It hasn't done any real road work yet."

Down the trail from Airport, leaving the trail of dust behind, went the train for New York. He was Jack Clifford, the Brooklyn boy. He came to Dempsey's camp filled with ambition and left with a plain eye and a heavy heart.

Dempsey planned to do some public knuckle dusting today if he could line up any good catchers. It was to be his first day in public.

Who'll Win?

By United Press.
NEW YORK, May 23—Sabe Adams, pitcher of the Pittsburgh Pirates.

AND LOTS OF 'EM

Bob Skelton, the national champion 440-yard breast-stroke swimmer, is on a visit to San Francisco. One of the papers prints this headline: "SKELTON SURPRISED AT SIZE OF TANKS IN SAN FRANCISCO."

Huh, he oughta see the tanks we have here in New York. Thousands of 'em, and all dry as hay bales.

DONLIN LIKES JOHNNY MITCHELL

Sitting in the press stand at the Polo Grounds last week, Mike Donlin, once murderous mauler, now eminent thespian, whispered to John Tonjus:

"There's a first division team sitting there on the Yankees bench which the regulars are on the field. They've got a million dollars' worth of talent, I think. Baker's bat is a fortune, and Johnny Mitchell, the shortstop they got from the coast, is a house afire."

"Mitchell can't bust into the game yet, but wait until he does. He'll be the sensation of the league."

SINGING OF BASEBALL TRADES

As the Senators were passing the Yanks the other day and the castoffs such as Duffy Lewis and George Morgan were making the locals look like mugs, one of the telegraphers, to the tune of John Brown's Body, sang: "They traded Duffy Lewis for some water on the knee."

BATTLING ORTEGA IS OFF FOR NEW ORLEANS.

Battling Ortega and Tommy Simpson left last night for New Orleans where the Battler has a date to step fifteen rounds with Happy Littleton May 30. A bout with Johnny Wilson, the middle-weight champion, at Milwaukee on June 5th is expected to be arranged should Ortega defeat Littleton. Simpson and Jimmy Duffy have made up again and Jimmy has promised to join his old manager in New Orleans next week.

Littleton, the Battler's best opponent, won in 15 rounds until he met Harry Greb four years ago when he was defeated. He is a local champion with a big following.

Tabloid Sports

By FRANKLIN B. MORSE.
Latest bulletin of the Tabloid Sports column, which is written when told that Carpenter had expressed the opinion that the American would be knocked out within six rounds. In fact, he has won 100 consecutive bouts without being knocked out. The information that Carpenter had been knocked out by Dempsey did not affect the opinion of either man.

The term "showboat" which the fans get so much pleasure applying to baseball players, does not measure up to the critical standard required maybe not by a shot depending on the point of view. A recent game between Boston and Philadelphia, a fine drive in the sixth inning, strained into left field and was caught for a putout. Wright, of course, was the showboat, but he was not as much alive to the fact that Chick Evans, Francis Guillet and Bobby Jones will want a lot of beating.

French Pick Their Tennis Players for Championships

PARIS, May 23.—The Associated Press—The French tennis players today named Jean Samazeuilh, who on Sunday won the French national singles tennis championship and Andre Gobert, who held the title in the last year, to represent France in the singles of the world's championship hard court tennis matches to begin at Saint Cloud on Saturday, Sunday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Samazeuilh and Gobert were runner-up in the national championships, designated for the women's singles, Mme. Langlais and Mme. Coiffait, and for the mixed doubles, Mme. Langlais and Andre Gobert. William H. Laurent, the present world's hard court singles champion, was named for the men's doubles.

The beginning of today's tournament matched André Gobert, who had a long and difficult struggle in the first year on the golf links, and they met a veritable army for the British who has more than 200 entrants.

MEXICO'S RECOGNITION.

Washington is reported to be ready with another proposition on which to base recognition of the present government of Mexico. The State Department has drawn up a memorandum which it is about to submit to President Obregon with the request for his adherence. If he accepts formal recognition will issue as a matter of course.

The principal conditions which Secretary Hughes would impose as a concomitant of recognition is the elimination from the Mexican constitution which Carranza had adopted of the provision making possible the nationalization of mineral resources in lands owned by foreigners title to which was obtained prior to 1917: repeal of the law which deprives American citizens of the right of diplomatic appeal in cases where property is acquired; modification of the provisions which bar Americans from owning property in certain zones along the Mexican coasts and near the international boundary, and revision of the practice of applying article 33 of the Mexican constitution so that Americans affected may have the right of appeal and the opportunity of a fair trial.

The first three of these conditions are important. The objections which the United States raised against the Mexican constitution are fundamental. So long as the present provisions are in force there can be no normal reciprocal intercourse between the two countries and formal recognition would be inconsistent and an endorsement of laws and practices which not only this country, but no other foreign country, could approve or tolerate.

The fourth condition, that referring to article 33, may or may not be wisely drawn. Article 33 enables the Mexican government to send a "pernicious foreigner" out of the country without delay or question. It is only necessary that he be adjudged objectionable by the executive official concerned and an order of deportation issued. He has no appeal to the courts or to his own diplomatic representative.

There is but one objection to this provision.

That is the manner in which it may be used. If the Mexican officials would use it only in cases where it is plainly deserved, it is a good provision. The objection in the past has been that the government has relied upon article 33 to expel foreigners that were not "pernicious" in any sense of the word, but were simply disliked by some petty Mexican official who desired to be rid of them. If General Obregon would modify the practice, so that a request for deportation would be examined by a judicial body at the capital, before which the accused foreigner would have the privilege of appearing, this objection would to a large extent be overcome, and at the same time a very effective instrumentality for getting rid of meddling foreigners retained.

Mexico should give the guarantees asked in the first three cases. They must be given before there can be any cordial dealings with foreign governments. And she should reform the practice of applying article 33 so as to permit its misuse, but this need not be done in direct conformity with this country's request. This done, the Obregon government will be fairly on its way toward that proud place among the family of great nations which Mexico once occupied.

A SMALL TROUBLE.

That despatch from Paris which says that in the world's fashion capital none but the very rich can be fashionable should not disturb us greatly. Why worry because one of the products of a war that took twelve million lives happens to be a small class of people who decree that a diamond tiara must be among the adornments of the fashionable in their set? The moral standards of that set are partly indicated by the fact that a diamond tiara is about all that the women wear.

No fashion that concentrates on the idea of displaying the wealth of its votaries long survives. Other States are considering a similar course. But before finally committing themselves they all should strive to put sense in censorship; then the laws will not be utterly doomed to failure.

"the fashionable," but it has never spoken the truth.

Always, every place in the world, the real leaders of society, in its broad and in its narrowest sense, have been those who practiced refinement, some degree of continence and at least appeared to place highest consideration upon culture and morality. They have seemed to want to do a few useful things. They have always permitted the gaudiness of prosperity to be preserved for the demimonde and the "new rich." So it will ever be.

And after this issue between the really fashionable and the rich would-be fashionables is settled, the honest, industrious, studious, patriotic citizen who loves his country and worships God will continue to be the most worth-while factor of society.

TRUTH ABOUT THE SCHOOLS.

In picking up the threads of truth broken during political campaigns and by individuals seeking to advance a favorite obsession, such as county division, it is well for the people of Oakland to keep the facts uncovered regarding their schools. There is a habit among politicians, especially politicians in office, to attempt escape for the responsibility of other governmental costs by referring to the costs of the schools. They like to make the schools bear the entire load of justifying all expenditures.

During the recent campaign much misinformation was put out for personal ends, and for no other purpose. The result of such tactics are mischievous. Wrong conceptions are created which are subversive of the purposes and means of good government and detrimental to the interest of the 40,000 school children of Oakland.

In the first place the charges of extravagance in the administration of the schools is almost entirely a myth, raised up by politicians of low calibre who think it a self-serving method to keep the people aroused and distrustful. The so-called overhead expenses which have been much discussed comprise 2.50 per cent of the total budget of $3,450,000 for the current school year. According to perfectly reliable authority, the cost for overhead expense in the Oakland schools is $2.09 per pupil. The overhead cost for forty-five cities in Oakland's class—of 100,000 population or over—averages $2.30 per pupil. So the Oakland overhead is $0.21 below the average.

Again it is not true that the proportion of the taxes spent for city school purposes constitute 65 per cent or 50 per cent of the total, as has been frequently asserted. During the past five years the proportion of the public funds raised by taxes, city and county, which has been spent for schools has ranged from 31 per cent to 36 per cent. The percentage of the total county tax rate levied for school purposes is 59.9 per cent, but the school tax levied in Oakland by both the county and city for Oakland schools was slightly less than 36 per cent of the total tax levy in Oakland.

It may be that this tax levy is unduly high, but however that may be the truth should be stated. Misrepresentation and plain falsehood uttered by those desiring to promote their own interest should be discovered and eliminated. The enrollment in the Oakland public schools is increasing at the rate of approximately 4000 a year. This calls for an addition to the school plant of about 100 new classrooms annually. It requires many other things and the problem of meeting those requirements is serious, persistent and wholly unavoidable. Facts alone can be a true guide.

THE LATE CHIEF JUSTICE.

By many tests the office of Chief Justice of the United States is the most dignified and most important in the land. It represents the ideal nearest to the heart of the American people and most expressive of the soul of America—justice.

The late Chief Justice Edward D. White, who passed away Wednesday, lived up to the high demands of the office. He maintained the traditions and added to the distinction of the Chief Justiceship. He could not do more and he could not be content to do and be less.

Yet the late Chief Justice was not an austere and forbidding man. The people of Washington loved him most. As his neighbors trusted him and loved him, so did all the American people. The strongest message that can be drawn from the life of the late Chief Justice is, have your neighbor regard you with affection and confidence and all will be well elsewhere. He lived this precept.

As a jurist Chief Justice White was profound in his knowledge, sweeping in his vision of the facts and the law, forceful and precise in his judgments. He was kind and considerate on the bench, as many a nervous or inexperienced practitioner has testified: never arbitrary, never clinging to those technical barriers by which many judges lighten their work. He loved his country and its people and was partisan of no other interest.

Although his advanced years had prepared the country for his retirement from active work, his death has caused a poignant sense of loss. The thought on most minds is whether the nation will be so fortunate as to find a worthy successor for the great office he occupied.

New York has adopted a censorship law and other States are considering a similar course. But before finally committing themselves they all should strive to put sense in censorship; then the laws will not be utterly doomed to failure.

A Hayward bakery has applied for and been granted a permit by a federal prohibition director to withdraw from bread and use in making mincemeat 100 gallons of brandy over a year. A statistician has figured out that this will be sufficient for over $100,000 plus. It is now likely that mince pie will regain its popularity and unusual activity can be looked for in the baking industry.

SPIRIT OF THE STATE PRESS

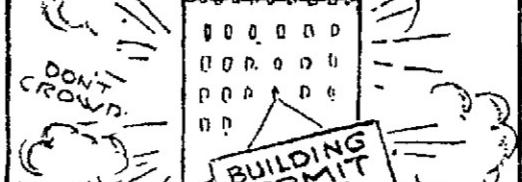

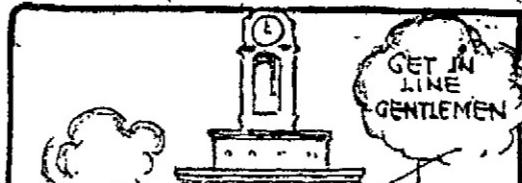

For some time the editor of The Bee has been handicapped for lack of help in the office and did not have as much time to gather news as was necessary. At last he secured the services for part time of Mrs. E. F. Crandle, who is spending the summer in Lakeport. Mrs. Crandle is also a teacher of shorthand and typewriting, and will take a few students in those branches for private instruction should any desire.

Call at Bee office for particulars—Lake County Bee.

Although Charles F. Curry congressional representative from this district, did all in his power to have the measure passed by Congress before adjournment, no provision will be made during the present session of Congress for the proposed addition to the Stockton post office, according to reports from Washington received in Stockton yesterday. Mr. Curry introduced a bill calling for an appropriation of $60,000 to Stockton to relieve congestion.

CHURCH LEADERS HONOR MEMORY OF BISHOP TAYLOR

Burial Plot Presented to Congregation At Services for Late Alameda Prelate.

In commemoration of the one-hundredth anniversary of the birth of Bishop William Taylor, widely famed in his life as bishop of Africa, the Centenary Memorial service and presentation of the burial plot in Mountain View cemetery to the Methodist church, which had gathered at the grave of the noted missionary attended by many bishops and missionaries, famous throughout the world. Many laymen of the church also attended the ceremonies.

Presentation of the burial plot to the church was made by E. K. Taylor, chairman of the church board. In behalf of his family, official concession in behalf of the church was made by Bishop Adna W. Leonard of San Francisco, presiding bishop, who declared in his brief address that although Bishop Taylor had been dead many years, memories of his career still live in the minds of his former constituents.

The ceremony was opened with an invocation by Bishop John W. Hamilton, chancellor of the American University at Washington, D. C., following a song, "The Royal Proclamation." The scripture was read by Bishop Leonard in the absence of Bishop Taylor, whose

MEMORIAL ADDRESS

Bishop Homer C. Stuntz of Omaha, Neb., formerly a missionary to India, superintendent of the Methodist Mission in the Philippines and Bishop of South Africa, gave the memorial address in which he outlined the life of Bishop Taylor and the great work he had completed. In the course of his address, Bishop Stuntz included mention of the following details:

"Almost three-quarters of a century ago, Bishop Taylor brought his family around Cape Horn to California in 1848 and landed on the northern beach of San Francisco harbor. His arrival was quickly followed by that of Rev. D. T. Hunt, the first Protestant minister to arrive and preach in the State.

"On his arrival in San Francisco, Bishop Taylor was greeted by almost 20,000 people, many of whom, however, when they found out what his mission to the frontier was, turned hostile and launched efforts to turn him back after a successful campaign in San Francisco, he went East again to Baltimore.

To the right is a picture of him as he looked shortly before his death.

ed long years in Africa, Australia, South America and other countries, Bishop Taylor left his family to reside in Alameda where the home has been maintained for many years. It was when he was in Australia that Bishop Taylor sent back the seeds which introduced the eucalyptus tree in America."

SOCIETIES INTRODUCED.

Shortly after the memorial address, presentation of floral tributes were made, during which organizations and societies were introduced by Bishop Edwin Holt Hughes of Boston, the former societies which had been benefited by Bishop Taylor, and the preliminary examination will be held on June 1. He

PRICES ARE FAIR, DEALERS ANSWER BOYCOTT THREAT

Merchants Reply to Charges That Exorbitant Profits Charged in Eastbay.

With a boycott suggested as a means of bringing down the retail cost of meat, milk and bakery goods, members of the meat dealers of Oakland, Alameda, Berkeley and Richmond are preparing to conduct a probe at the city hall tonight in an effort to justify their assertions that the prices of those commodities are exorbitant and that dealers are profiteering in their various businesses. They insist that they are able to prove conclusively that they are not asking unfair prices.

Inspectors C. B. Wagner and Ben Snyder were searching the quarters of the dealers when they came upon one of them, Thomas Blanckert, in his shop on 12th Street. They were rather definite about searching his berth but noted that one of the mattresses was hard. A more thorough probing unearthed 48 bottles of Scotch between the upper and lower mattresses.

While the探查ing of the berth was in progress, the dealers were searching the floor of the shop.

Eighty-one bottles were found in the forecastle and nine tied to the railings and held below the surface of the water.

$50,000 Damage Suit Begins Second Trial

The second trial of the $50,000 suit of Orrin Van Horn against the Standard Oil Company and Charles E. Holt, began before Superior Judge W. S. Cleverdon yesterday.

Van Horn claims to have been struck by an oil truck driven by Holt at San Pablo Avenue and Washington Street.

The evidence in the previous case showed that he had alighted from a street car and was running beside the truck to catch it when he was struck by the hind wheels of the truck, losing a leg as a result.

Under leaden of Mrs. Harry O'Toole and Mrs. Mary Stroup, the Alameda delegation will attend in a body.

Mattmen, according to J. B. Muir, secretary of the meat dealers, will not attend the meeting. Muir said that he would not be able to get enough committee to attend because of previous engagements.

Holding a Husband by Adele Garrison

The Way Aunt Dora Paige Made

Made Really Want to Be Fed.

I could see that a bowl of chilled and jellied chicken broth, a glass of mixed fruit juices, and a wonderfully concocted mixture of something that looked like white foam upon gold had been placed upon the tray which Jerry held with the imperturbability of an ebony statue. Aunt Dora Paige gave them a final critical look of inspection, her head held on one side like a dainty canary, then she turned briskly to me.

"Let me shake up your pillows, child," she said tenderly, advancing toward me.

I knew that if she succeeded in her purpose she would in all probability discover the ruse that I had and I had played upon her. I could imagine her indignant, pained, old fashioned face sprang to life when she found out that I was almost fully dressed beneath the bedclothes. But I had no defense against her. I looked helplessly at Jerry, who sprang to the rescue.

"Let me do that, Auntie, dear," she cooed as with quick deftness she stepped from her aunt and me, and with my co-operation had me propped with pillows in most interesting invalid fashion in no time. As she bent over me I gave her a quick, whispered warning.

"Find Mother Graham and explain this before she enters the room," I muttered tensely. A quick bob of Jerry's head showed that she understood me.

"Heah, June!" Miss Paige demanded. "Set that tray down on that table and bring this little stand up to the bed. There! that's right. Now put the tray on the stand. There, my dear, now we're ready.

I just want to see you clean up every bit of this."

THE MYSTERY OF JIM PAIGE.

I felt morally certain that a fit of indigestion or worse awaited me if I obeyed her command. But I also felt that I would endure almost anything rather than disappoint the tender graciousness which shone from the clear eyes of the little old lady. She gave me a jaunty imitation of gusto, for which I felt that much credit should be given me.

"Biscuits, June," Miss Paige demanded. "Set that tray down on that table and bring this little stand up to the bed. There! that's right. Now put the tray on the stand. There, my dear, now we're ready.

I just want to see you clean up every bit of this."

Hot Biscuits Never Go Begging When Well Made

Hot biscuits and butter, hot biscuits and honey, or hot biscuits and marmalade—no one's face except a confirmed dyspeptic's could help but brighten at the sight of a plate of them on the table if they are what proper biscuits should be—tender, flaky and well baked.

Biscuits are not difficult to make when a few important points are kept in mind. These are to use a good recipe, to mix as quickly as possible, to let the baking powder be moistened, to have the dough just stiff enough to handle, and to bake in a rather hot oven.

The following recipes for making biscuits are recommended by food specialists in the United States Department of Agriculture:

Plain Baking Powder Biscuit.—2 cups sifted flour; 2 teaspoons salt; 2 teaspoons baking powder; 2 tablespoons shortening; 2 to 3 cup buttermilk, milk, or equal parts of each.

Sift together the flour, salt, and baking powder. Cut or chop the shortening into the flour with a knife or a cookie cutter until well distributed. Finally, if necessary, rub the mixture between the tips of the fingers until it is like meal. Add just enough cold liquid to make a soft dough that can be handled on the board, mixing it with a knife if possible. Mix quickly and handle the dough as little as possible.

Place the biscuits on a baking sheet or in shallow tins dusted lightly with flour and bake in a rather hot oven for 10 to 15 minutes or until thoroughly baked.

Conrad, whose stories are unbearably hard for many people to read, has done one clever thing in getting away from all the set rules. And my friend Smith has invented a new way of telling a magazine novel. What is more to the point, he has done it in a way that probably no one else in the world can do, that means anything to me unhappy? Which is right and for the best?

Oh, Jerry, you have answered so many questions so wisely and so justly—please help me!

PATIENTLY WAITING.

To do this Smith borrowed a hint or two from Conrad and other men. He also broke all the rules, for which do him high honor! The old laws are worth while only as a basis for new laws. Here is the general scheme, as Smith has outlined it.

The monotony of a book-length depends on a continuity of action, and on a continuity of the same accurred characters all through the story. Therefore, change is the key to the story.

Let us suppose, says Smith, that you divide your proposed story into four parts, each of fifteen to twenty thousand words. For the sake of convenience and conveying the idea, call these four "books."

In Book I introduce the hero and the girl. Begin here to break rules, by having the action of the story depend on several other characters. Introduce one

UNCLE WIGGLY AND THE CLOTHES BASKET.

Once upon a time Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy said to Uncle Wiggily Long-eared, "Ho, ho, ho! dear, would you mind taking the basket and bringing in the clean clothes? My whiskers ache so from having done the washing that I hardly believe I can take the clothes off the line."

SHIPPING, FOOD PRICES AND WORLD'S COMMERCE

HAY DECLINES ON LACK OF DEMAND; MILL FEEDS UP

Large Gold Shipments Come Here
By HOLLAND
Exclusive to OAKLAND TRIBUNE

Produce Prices Continue On Downward Trend; Poultry Weaker.

Lack of demand has resulted in a decline of $1.30 a ton in the price of hay on the San Francisco market in the past week, according to the weekly market report of Scott, Morris & Co., San Francisco. Shipments last week were increased and totaled 812 tons, as compared with 833 tons of the week before.

No new grain hay as yet has been reported sold either on the local market or in the country. Asking prices, however, have been reported to have been far below the general range of old crop hay and indications are that new crop trading will open at several dollars per ton under the last quotation of the old crop.

Light rains are reported in nearly all the hay and grain sections and with the cool weather there has been of great benefit to the late sown crops. Indications are of large yields of hay and grain. As yet there has not been any great quantity of volunteer that is cut and lying in the fields, but some apprehension is felt in the hay market for the prospect of too much.

"Mill and dairy foods are stronger and have advanced all along the line from $1 to $2 per ton with the increase not being either supply or demand, as supply has been light and local and export demand almost nil."

The chief factor governing the downward trend is the general tendency of Eastern wheat with a sympathetic advance of all coarse grain and a response of milled grain.

On the other hand, the market is not quite one-third of the total debt which includes interest and trade balance.

An estimate of this kind clearly demonstrates that it is impracticable, even impossible, that gold be used in squaring up accounts with the United States.

If this estimate be correct, then all the other nations held at the beginning of the present year a little over four billion eight hundred millions in gold. If all this gold was used it would not liquidate the trade balance which is in our favor. It does not even begin to pay off the debts.

The arrival of these goods is expected to have a weakening effect on the new potato market, which continues firm at 34¢ to 1 lb. for Early Rose and Carrots, and higher for the remainder. The new crop is scarce nor the quality of the "spuds" will not be known until digging is fairly underway.

It is noted that the acreage this year greatly exceeds that of last year and for this reason a large crop is expected, even though the yield may be average only.

Strawberries were very plentiful today and dropped in price from 75¢ to 60¢ per lb. At the local market the price was held up well, however, and at 9 o'clock there were not many left to go to the cannery.

Cherries were received, too, in increased amount and showed the effect of heavy shipments by a slightly weaker price.

The poultry market was unchanged, but slightly weaker in tone. Belgian hares dropped 2¢ a lb. from 20¢ top down to 18¢.

POULTRY AND GAME

BUTTER, EGGS, CHEESE

Prices quoted below are selling prices from the jobber, established daily for the San Francisco Wholesale Dairy Produce Exchange:

BUTTER—May 20, 1921, 20 lb., 23¢; prime, 1st, 21¢; 2nd, 22¢; 3rd, 23¢.

Eggs—do, 20 lb., 22¢.

Cheese—unchanged, receipts 32,832 cases; firsts, 21¢; 22¢; ordinary flats, 18¢ to 19¢; at mark, cases included, 20¢ to 21¢; standards, 22¢.

EASTERN PRODUCE

CHICAGO, May 22.—Butter higher; creamery extra, 27¢; firsts, 21¢ @ 25¢; seconds, 17¢ to 20¢; standards, 27¢.

Bucks unchanged, receipts 32,832 cases; firsts, 21¢; 22¢; ordinary flats, 18¢ to 19¢; at mark, cases included, 20¢ to 21¢; standards, 22¢.

These statistics seem to be sufficient to show that the United States cannot and should not rely upon gold for the liquidation of trade balances. Sometimes the suggestion has been made that we rely for the payment of our balances upon a very great amount in the imports. That were possible or not, it could be relied upon without detriment to our own trade, then an excess of at least two billion dollars of imports over exports each year would be necessary, and this must be continued for seven years. This is the estimate which was made by Mr. Poor.

If, then, the debts and the trade balances cannot be liquidated either by the use of gold or by a very great success of imports over exports the question arises, if there any way by which we can preserve our economic position, protect the foreign markets which we have entered and improve them and at the same time meet our domestic market for existing excessive imports?

THIS IS A REMEDY.

Mr. Poor has put in what our leading men of finance and bankers have recently in an informal manner declared to be the reasonable and satisfactory method of protecting ourselves and securing the payment of indebtedness.

This is done, he asserts, by the conversion of the treasury notes of the foreign nations which are now held by our government into the securities of the financial, commercial and industrial enterprises of foreign peoples, these securities to be held as an investment by our own people.

RETAIL STOCKS NOT READJUSTED SAYS REPORT

SAN FRANCISCO, May 23.—Most of retail dealers of the Twelfth Federal Reserve District have not yet cleared their stocks of high-priced stock purchased last year and are buying by retailers is to meet today's needs, according to a statement made public today by the Federal Reserve Bank here. Present wholesale prices are less in all lines than they were a year ago, the statement said.

Retailers of the district reported sales declined in value but increased volume in April, 1921, compared with the previous month.

City Waterfront Brings in $13,882

Oakland's waterfront brought in $13,882.77 during April, according to the monthly report of W. H. Stephens, Jr., Masterson, submitted today. Tolls brought $5,511.81; leases earned $3,663.34 and docking brought $2,160.

CLUB MEMBERS OPEN ARGUMENTS ON SCHOOL SITE

Condemnation Proceedings
Against Property Hinge
On Outcome.

Representatives of the Home Club and the McChesney Mothers' Club are scheduled to appear before the Board of Education this afternoon to battle for or against a proposed school site on the nine-acre Mary Smith tract at Hopkins street and Park boulevard.

The Home Club does not want the school right next door. The Glenview and McChesney clubs want the school. Both sides will be present in force.

It all started more than a year ago. At that time the Board of Education started negotiations, but couldn't get any price from the owner. Meanwhile, M. P. Smith, a builder, was also trying to negotiate the transfer of his property. The title was transferred to Smith before the Board of Education knew it. The first news came when the title-transfer was published.

Representatives of the Board of Education immediately went to see Mr. Smith. He wanted $90,000 to sell, but the educators refused to pay it. They requested the district attorney to prepare condemnation proceedings. The papers are now ready. The Board tonight must decide whether or not to press the condemnation suit.

The Home Club favors the school, it is said, but not on that particular property. The Glenview and McChesney clubs want the school right away.

PURSE CARRIED OFF.

While Frank Costa was shooting craps with two friends at 1042 East Sixteenth street, yesterday afternoon, he dropped his purse with $30 on the floor. One of the players picked it up and ran. Costa gave chase but the man got away. Costa resides at 2035 East Twentieth street.

Graduates of St. Mary's College Foregather For Golden Jubilee of Brother Agnon

Five Hundred Do Honor to Veteran Teacher and Member of Faculty.

Professional and business men from all walks of life, graduates of St. Mary's college, paid tribute to Brother Agnon yesterday at a golden jubilee celebration in honor of the completion of his fiftieth year as a teacher in the Christian Brothers Order of California.

The day's activities began at 11 o'clock in the morning with a solemn high mass in the college chapel by Monsignor M. D. Connolly. He was assisted by Rev. Edward J. Doran, '28, celebrant; Rev. Edward J. Craywall, master of ceremonies; Monsignor Connolly eulogized the work of Brother Agnon during his fifty years as an educator and paid high tribute to the successful men who had been his pupils.

BASEBALL GAME.

Following a luncheon at noon, the 500 alumni adjourned to the athletic field, where the benefits-and-bachelors contest in a baseball game between Brother Agnon, pitcher, the first ball, and Frank M. Silva, '03, now United States district attorney in San Francisco, unpicked. The bachelors were captained by Edward McClade, '16, and the benefits by John F. Brady, '06. The bachelors won by a score of 12 to 1.

Included in the lineups on the field were the former and former-leaguers Eddie Halligan of the St. Louis Americans and Eddie Burns of the Philadelphia Nationals. Harry O'Day, '86, former major leaguer, now captain of police in San Francisco, assisted in coaching the benefits.

Immediately after the game the St. Mary's College Alumni elected officers for the ensuing year as follows: Frank M. Silva, president; L. Flynn, collector of internal revenue at San Francisco, vice-president; W. J. Fitzgerald, secretary of the Board of Public Works for San Francisco, secretary and treasurer; and C. F. Hanlon, Peter McCormick, Robert Moy and Edward Silver, directors. During the meeting resolutions were passed eulogizing Brother Agnon for his faithful service as a member of the faculty of the college.

ALUMNI ELECTION.

The celebration concluded with a banquet at the college, at which Frank M. Silva, newly-elected Celebration of the Golden Jubilee in honor of Brother Agnon, for thirty-four years a teacher at St. Mary's College and who for fifty years has been a teacher of the Christian Brothers' Order. In the upper picture he is being congratulated by Federal Judge Maurice T. Dooling, a student of Brother Agnon's from 1880 to '84. Superior Judge Bernard J. Flood and Captain Harry O'Day also near Brother Agnon. (Lower) Brother Agnon receiving congratulations from Brother Gregory, president of the college.

alumni president, presided as toastmaster. Those who spoke were: "Our Professional Men," Edward J. Barry, '07; "Our Commercial Men," Edward J. Silva, '02; "Our Deceased," S. M. Adriano, '14; Colonel John L. Flynn, '01; "Old St. Mary's," Hon. Thomas J. Lennon, '85; "Our Young Graduates," James L. Haggerty, '19; "Brother Justin, Our First President," Charles F. Hanlon, '14; "St. Mary's Prospect," Brother Gregory, and "Our Jubilarian," Brother Z. Joseph, provincial of the Christian Brothers in California.

Brother Agnon, whose secular name is John McCann, has taught at St. Mary's college for the past forty years. He entered the Christian Brothers Order in 1871 and his novitiate was made in St. Joseph's Academy, Oakland. He first taught in St. Mary's in 1877. He also was a teacher at Sacred Heart college, San Francisco, for several years.

CAREER OF BROTHER AGNON.

Brother Agnon was born in New York City and when a boy came to California. His father was killed in an accident at a mine in the northern part of the state. It was then he decided to study and become a member of the Christian Brothers Order. He now teaches logic, philosophy, history and mathematics in the college.

The festivities yesterday were arranged by Brother Gregory, president of St. Mary's college, and Wm. J. Fitzgerald, secretary of the college Alumni Association.

Public officials who received their early education from Brother Agnon and who attended the celebration yesterday included: Federal Judge Maurice T. Dooling of San Francisco, Judge F. P. Landrum, '82, of Nevada; Judge T. J. Lennon, '85, San Francisco; Superior Judge Bernard Flood of San Francisco, '97; Frank J. Muraski, '83, San Francisco; Superior Judge Louis F. Ward, '95, San Francisco; Judge E. J. Butterfield, '96, Marin County, and Superior Judge J. W. Bartlett of Weaverville.

JUSTIN McCARTY SOUGHT.

The Oakland police department was today asked to locate Justin McCarty, who last heard from in this city twelve years ago. The request was made by John J. Coughlin of Hingham, Mass. McCarty is 45 years old and is over six feet in height.

OIL MAN HELD ON FRAUD CHARGE FROM STOCKTON

Accused Makes Denial and Says Has Cancelled Checks to Show.

Charged with embezzling money and stocks belonging to R. P. Spencer, San Francisco broker, and to the Invader Oil and Refining company of Texas, C. W. Talbot, Oakland broker with offices at 812 Broadway, was arrested today for the Stockton oil robbery by Deputy Sheriff Jack Collier at the Menlo hotel. The warrant was issued by the Stockton authorities.

According to the complaint, Talbot, who was in charge of the Stockton office of Spencer & Stebbins, Invader Oil representatives, disappeared with $250 which had been paid by Jacob Deldiker for stock.

Talbot declared he had the canceled checks to show that he had paid the brokerage firm in full and said that when he was taken to Stockton he would produce papers that would bring his immediate release.

Talbot said that he was formerly sheriff of Rush county, Kansas, and this is the first time he has been on the inside without the keys, said Talbot. "I have been in jail lots of times but I always had the keys to the door."

Talbot said that he was working on a salary for the firm of Spencer & Stebbins, San Francisco brokers, and that he had charge of the Stockton office. He alleged that he sent in the $250 check for the Deldiker stock but that the man failed to receive his stock from San Francisco and complained.

The prisoner will be taken to Stockton by deputy sheriffs from that city who are en route.

Lone Woman Footpad Reported to Police

SAN FRANCISCO, May 23.—A lone woman footpad was reported to the police today. Kuang Mai, a Chinese of 1058 Clay street, had no money and was forced to beg from a woman of perhaps 24 as she walked rapidly by him on Mason street near Pine, at midnight. A moment later pistol was held against his back and a soft voice demanded his money. He held up his hands and the woman took $1 from him, searching his pockets in deft fashion. She then disappeared in an alley, the Chinese says.

Union Labor Record Goes Into New Home

The official publication of labor in Alameda county, The Union Labor Record, has moved its offices. The Review a short time ago, has moved into its new quarters. The new address is 288 Twelfth street. Stanton W. Lore is managing editor and publisher of the paper. The ground floor is occupied by the mechanical department and the offices are on the mezzanine floor.

Learn to Swim Week Is On; Instruction Is Free

"Sink or swim, live or die," is not merely a problem of statesmanship applying to the early history of our country; it is likely to find a literal interpretation in the personal experience of most individuals, sooner or later, or other. The old injunction to "hang your clothes on a hickory limb, but don't go near the water" is one sure way to avoid the "sink or swim" issue, but it has few adherents, save among those who are seeking a coat of tan or who delight in flinging defiance in the teeth of the moral squad patrolling along the beach in the afternoon.

It is said that 5000 lives were lost in the United States by drowning in 1918. Through the inauguration of "Learn to Swim Week" it is hoped that the number will drop below the 1000 mark this year.

PLACES OF INSTRUCTION.
Free instruction in swimming will be given at the following plumes:

Cottage Baths—Every day, 10-12 a.m.

Idora Park—Every day, 11-12 a.m., 4-6 p.m.

Neptune—Every day, 10:30-12:00 5:00-6:00.

Piedmont—Every day, excepting Saturday, 11-12, 5-6.

Y. M. C. A.—Monday, Wednesday, Friday, 4-5; Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday, 3-4 p.m.

Y. W. C. A.—Monday, Wednesday, Friday, 5-6 p.m.; Thursday, Saturday, 1:30-2:30.

HOLD-UP MEN
TWICE ENTER
DRINK PARLOR

John Connally and Pat Casey, owners of a soft drink parlor at the corner of Seventh and Kirkham streets, were held up early last night. Two men walked into the parlor and asked for something hard to drink. When Casey told them that they only had soft drinks one of the men struck him on the head with the butt of his revolver.

The two hold-up men then walked out of the place. They returned within a few minutes and ordered Casey to give them all the money which was in the cash register. He laid $40 on the counter. Casey then picked up the telephone.

When asked who he was going to telephone to, he replied "The police department."

It was placed in the hall, but blocked the hall. Business Manager Barzee tried to use it but it took most of the office. It has now been moved back to the doorway. Somebody is going to have it all is too good to go to waste. It is rumored that there is now a conspiracy afoot to give it to some school.

WOMAN CHARGED WITH SELLING MORPHINE, HELD

Mrs. Pong Wong, charged with violating the state poison act, was held to answer to the charge in the Superior court this morning. Judge Edward J. Bell, after the attorney for the defense submitted the case without putting any witnesses on the stand.

Mrs. Pong Wong is charged with a felony because she has been convicted on two previous charges of violating the state poison act. She was arrested on March 30 after she sold a $3 package of morphine to Miss Grace King, an operator for the State Board of Pharmacy at 727 Harrison street. It was expected that "Little Ernest," who figured in the recent poisonings, would be a witness, as he was in the room when the morphine was sold.

According to the police, Pong Joe, her husband, has been convicted of the same offense and is in the county jail waiting to be sentenced.

How to Make Your Clothes Wear Longer

You have observed what happens to a flag that flaps and whips in the breeze. In time it becomes shredded and tattered.

Your washing, when you dry it on the line, is subjected to this same wearing action. Of course, the effects are not so severe and not so apparent to the eye, as those suffered by the flag, but they are there nevertheless.

There is none of this wear when one of the modern laundries of the East Bay Cities dries for you. Your clothes are simply placed in a magic basket. In 15 minutes, without so much as a thread being disturbed, they are practically dry.

A few minutes more in warm, pure air and they are completely dry. No wringing, no flapping, no soot—the result is longer life for your clothes, economy of expenditure and economy of labor.

Doesn't this appeal to you as the proper way to have your family washed?

This, however, is but one of the conserving details of the improved laundering methods of the modern laundries of the East Bay Cities. A trial will be convincing—a phone call will bring a route representative for your family bundle.
